West Still Remains Split On Unified Berlin Policy

West Pushes Space Plan

U.N. Move To Ignore Soviet Opposition

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The United States and 19 associated countries prepared today to push through their outer-space resolution with or without Soviet approval.

Western diplomats predicted a handsome majority of the U.N. General Assembly's Political Committee would approve the U.S. resolution creating a committee to start study of peaceful use of outer space.

Some Asians and Africans expressed doubt that the Russians would sit on the committee, which would report back to the Assembly next year on what the U.N. should do to promote international cooperation in the study and peaceful use of outer space.

The committee would consist of 18 countries — three Communist, three neutralist and 12 pro-Western. Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian A. Zorin has demanded that Communist and neutralist countries together should equal the total of pro-Western countries.

A rival Soviet resolution would establish an 11-nation committee directed to draft a program and rules for a permanent international committee for space research. It would consist of four Communist countries, three neutrals and four Westerns.

The United States and its cosponsors had been waiting since Friday night for Soviet reaction to the revised version of their original Nov. 13 resolution. They submitted the new draft after Zorin and U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge failed in private talks to agree on composition of the proposed special committee — the main stumbling block to preparation of a single resolution that could pass unanimously.

Various Strikes Hit Transportation Industry in U.S.

With the Thanksgiving travel rush about to start, a second major airline was struck today. Flight engineers and machinists walked off their jobs at Eastern Air Lines.

Trans World Airline had 200 planes grounded in the fourth day of a strike by 6,700 machinists. American Airlines faced a strike threat by its pilots, with a prospect of an operational shutdown after a walkout deadline at midnight Tuesday.

Another labor dispute shut down the Studebaker-Packard automobile plant at South Bend, Ind., today where 7,000 United Auto Workers quit their jobs.

There were strikes also in the farm equipment and tractor industry involving 50,000 UAW employes of International Harvester and the Caterpillar Tractor Co.

The strike of 600 flight engineers at Eastern Air Lines was supported by unions representing some 7,000 other employes. Eastern started preparations for a complete shutdown of its operations in 25 states, Canada, Puerto Rico, Mexico and Bermuda could not continue.

Machinists refused to cross the engineers' picket lines and said they also were on strike.

In particular, the strike at Eastern hit the heavy seasonal migration of winter vacationers to Florida. The engineers object to an airline demand that they take pilot training. Wages and working conditions also were in dispute.

The TWA strike, which idled some 12,000 employes besides the 6,700 striking members of the International Assn. of Machinists, was the subject of a special government mediation effort.

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service sent one of its top negotiators to the airline's Kansas City headquarters to seek a settlement.

As labor troubles also beset small airline companies, Capital Airlines resumed partial service after ending of a 37-day strike by 2,600 machinists. Normal passenger traffic was expected to be resumed Wednesday.

Capital machinists accepted a 41-cent-an-hour increase over a three-year period, bringing their top pay to $2.95 an hour. A TWA spokesman said the company's final wage offer was almost the same as accepted by machinists of Capital and Northwest Airlines. The union's last contract with TWA provided for wages ranging from $1.45 an hour for kitchen helpers to $2.61 for machinists with 13 years experience.

At Indianapolis, 33 stewardesses of Lake Central Airlines struck at midnight in a dispute over wages. They hoped pilots would refuse to cross their picket lines and ground the line's aircraft in six Midwest and Eastern states. Picket lines were set up in Indianapolis, Chicago and Columbus, Ohio. The line also serves cities in Michigan, Pennsylvania and New York.

The machinists union, in dispute with three smaller airline companies, reached a tentative agreement early today on a new contract with West Coast Airlines. A union spokesman said the contract was subject to ratification of the 86 mechanics who struck the airline four days ago. The company serves 41 cities in Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

The union has authorized a strike against Pacific Airlines, which operates in California and Nevada, but no date was set. The union also is in dispute with Northeast Airlines.

In the auto industry, Studebaker-Packard production workers at South Bend, Ind., rejected a company wage increase proposal tied to new car sales and voted to strike today. The walkout, approved by the United Auto Workers Local 5, would idle 7,000 employes. Management and union representatives continued efforts to reach an agreement.

There was a bright spot in the labor picture too. A new three-year master contract was reached by Bendix Aviation Corp. and the United Auto Workers. It covered 13,500 workers in eight cities and ended a strike which started Tuesday.

The new pact is subject to ratification by local unions and the working out of supplemental local agreements. Terms roughly parallel those agreed upon between the union and the auto industry's Big Three—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—in pattern-setting pacts reached earlier this year.

The UAW has strikes continuing against two big farm machinery firms, International Harvester Co. and Caterpillar Tractor Co. Wages are the chief issue in both disputes.

Operations at the big Gary, Ind., works of the U.S. Steel Corp., were curtailed by a strike Sunday of 1,400 switchmen, brakemen and yardmen of the Elgin, Joliet and Eastern Railway. Pickets were withdrawn from the Gary works shortly before midnight. Full operation was not expected until midnight tonight.

The strike by members of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen was termed by a union spokesman as unauthorized.

Officials Meet For Talks on Waste Control

The question of whether or not Circleville can keep on polluting the Scioto River comes up again tomorrow.

City officials and officers of the Container Corporation of America will meet with engineers of the Ohio Board of Health at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow in Columbus.

The meeting is required by law. The men will discuss the steps Circleville has taken to halt pollution of the Scioto. Circleville has applied to the Ohio Board of Water Pollution Control for a permit to pollute the stream.

The city's current permit expires December 15. This is the eighth time the city has asked for renewal of its permit.

Meeting with the state officials will be Irvin Leist, manager of public utilities, Ray Hawks and Carl DeBruin, sewage treatment plant employes; H. J. Schroeder, plant manager of the Container Corporation of America; Ray Fuller and Robert Boes, engineers of Burgess & Niple, Columbus consulting firm.

BURGESS & NIPLE have been conducting experiments, paid for by CCA and the city, to determine if the city's wastes can be treated to meet the requirements of the state Board of Water Pollution Control.

Principal problem of the city's sewage treatment is the waste poured into the system by Container Corporation. Container waste, like that of other paper manufacturing plants, is difficult to treat and represents the major problem for the city treatment plant.

Leist said today that the Burgess & Niple experiments with city and container wastes have proved that the matter can be treated, but at huge cost.

Reds Silence Guns After Heavy Fire

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Communist shore batteries lifted their fire today after pounding the Quemoy Islands with the heaviest barrage in nearly three weeks.

The Red guns fell silent on this even-numbered, no-shelling day. The Quemoy garrison reported hundreds of Communist soldiers went back to work on coastal fortifications facing the offshore islands.

Nationalist defense headquarters said the Reds unloaded 1,975 shells on Quemoy and the smaller islands Sunday. This was the heaviest fire since Nov. 5, when the Communists laid down 5,594 rounds.

Return fire by the Nationalist garrison was described as heavy.

Nixon, Rocky Reach Accord On '60 Goals

They'll Avoid Stepping On Each Other in Rush to White House

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon and Nelson A. Rockefeller apparently have reached an understanding to avoid stepping on each other's political toes until 1960.

A weekend conference here between the vice president and the Republican governor-elect of New York produced an informal agreement pointed publicly at cooperation between them in rebuilding the GOP from its heavy election this year.

Rockefeller endorsed a thesis Nixon first advanced in October—that the party will be best served if it develops a number of men of national stature as possible presidential nominees for 1960.

While Nixon makes no secret that he wants that nomination, Rockefeller said he is interested only in doing a good job as governor of New York. Asked if this wasn't the best way to run for president, Rockefeller only grinned.

Rockefeller's statement that he intends to confine his activities to New York was taken as assurance he will not personally interfere in the spade work Nixon's supporters are engaged in elsewhere.

Nixon, on the other hand, obviously is not going to intrude in New York, where Rockefeller is expected to have control of the largest of the state delegations to the convention two years from now.

It also seems implicit in the understanding between the two men that Rockefeller will not lend his support to any stop-Nixon move such as Harold E. Stassen is trying to get off the ground.

Stassen, a former aide to President Eisenhower, pointedly omitted Nixon's name and included Rockefeller's in a personal listing of possible candidates for the 1960 GOP nomination.

In response to a question, Rockefeller said it seemed so obvious Nixon's name belongs on any list of prospects "that it hardly needs my comment to reassure him."

Stassen tried without success to dump Nixon from the GOP national ticket in 1956.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz), who won re-election this month in the face of a national Democratic sweep, said Nixon is "my candidate" now for the presidential nomination.

Goldwater said in a radio-TV interview that Rockefeller should receive consideration in 1960 if he does a good job as governor and, as Goldwater put it, doesn't "take up the radical cry of the Democrats."

Five Youths Hurt When Car Crashes

Five youths were injured, none seriously, when the car in which they were riding crashed on the Circleville-Stoutsville Pike about three miles east of here at 1:15 p. m. yesterday.

The auto was driven by Donald D. Guseman, 18, Route 2, Amanda, who was treated at Berger Hospital for contusions and abrasions.

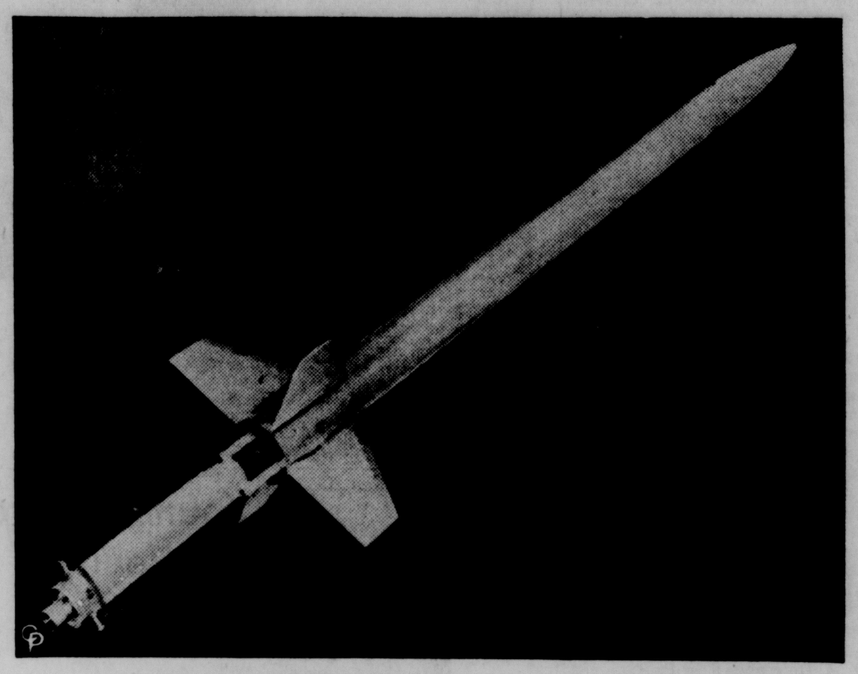
Passengers taken to the hospital were: Marion Guseman, 15, Route 2, Amanda, abrasions; James Aldenderfer, 18, Route 1, Stoutsville, multiple abrasions, back injuries and possible concussion; Billy Lee Carter, 17, Route 1, Stoutsville, abrasions; and Jerry Kerns, 19, Route 2, Amanda, lacerations and contusions.

Aldenderfer was admitted to the hospital. The others were treated and released.

* * *

DEPUTY Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said Guseman's westbound car apparently went out of control on a curve and rolled over. Aldenderfer and Marion Guseman were thrown from the auto, the deputy added.

Radcliff said Guseman would be cited for reckless operation. The auto was demolished.



NEW SOUNDING MISSILE — This is the Arcon high sounding rocket, a new meteorological missile developed for the U.S. Navy to study the upper atmosphere. It will also provide the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance in Washington with data to compare rocket vibration forces of solid propellant rockets of different sizes but the same design. It can carry a 40-pound payload of instruments to a height of approximately sixty-five miles, it was revealed by Defense Department.

State Law Untangles Knot On Torch Slaying Trial Site

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say they have untangled a legal knot on where Mrs. Edythe Klumpp should be prosecuted in the torch death of a rival.

The answer lies in powers under the Ohio Criminal Code, a spokesman said Sunday.

He said this gives officers a green light to pursue prosecution of the blonde, night school teacher accused of first degree murder here—or in Clinton County—in the death of Mrs. Martha Louise Bergen, 32.

Officers asked for a delay at a preliminary hearing last Friday when Mrs. Klumpp's attorney, William F. Hopkins, raised the point of the two charges and the lack of official ruling on how and where Mrs. Bergen died.

The next hearing is set for Wednesday.

Mrs. Bergen's body heavily mutilated by fire, was discovered by hunters last Nov. 1 at a state lake near Wilmington.

She was identified through keys and a necklace found near the body. The county pathologist here, Dr. Frank Cleveland, first said his autopsy showed two skull fractures. He said she may still have been alive when set afire with gasoline.

But after her arrest, police said Mrs. Klumpp told them the woman was shot in the throat and killed as they wrestled over a gun. She said she hauled the body around in the trunk of her car for a day before burning it in the adjoining county.

Later tests by Dr. Cleveland turned up traces of metal in the throat of the body and carbon monoxide in the blood. He said this carbon monoxide could have come from the car's exhaust, but did not comment further.

Police said they believe this is the statute that applies to the case:

"If any mortal wound is given or other violence or injury inflicted, or any poison administered or sent into one county by means whereof death occurs in another county, the offender may be prosecuted in either county."

The State Highway Patrol at Wilmington, which filed the other first degree murder charge, has not yet indicated whether it will seek jurisdiction in the case.

Investigators said their suspicions shifted to Mrs. Klumpp after she gave them a phony lead in the case.

Pacifist Shuns Hearing Again

U.S. Judge Orders Arrest of Cleric

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, Cincinnati's pacifist minister, failed to show up in U.S. District Court here again today. Judge John H. Druffel ordered a bench warrant issued for his arrest.

It was the second time the Rev. Mr. McCrackin failed to appear to answer to an indictment charging him with failure to reply to an Internal Revenue Service summons on his income tax troubles.

The minister has refused to pay all of his income taxes for the last 10 years because part of the money goes for military purposes.

When his case came up at noon today, the court bailiff called for him three times in a well-filled courtroom and three times in the hallway. There was no reply.

The minister said Sunday night, "I will be unable to respond to the summons which has been issued for my appearance tomorrow (Monday)."

This is in line with his actions in previous procedures on a charge he failed to answer a summons to discuss his income taxes with internal revenue officials.

At the first arraignment, Nov. 14, court aides had to carry him into the courtroom. He refused to come voluntarily.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin refused to stand or enter a plea and fought efforts to appoint attorneys for him.

This led to a sanity examination in which three psychiatrists reportee him mentally fit.Hewas released from custody last Thursday after six days in which he fasted and prayed.

The minister—of west Cincinnati St. Barnabas Church—has refused to pay part or all his income taxes in the past 10 years because they pay for arms.

He said Sunday night:

"We have certainly not reached the place where we do not need laws and the court.

"But in this particular instance I feel the court is cooperating in an effort to collect money for war which is wrong and in an effort to coerce my conscience to support what I believe is sin."

Detectives' Wives Get HST's Thanks

CLEVELAND (AP) — When former President Harry S. Truman came here last month to help the Democratic campaign, he told five detectives who were with him almost constantly for three days as bodyguards that he was sorry to have to keep them away from their families.

Now, it has come to light that Truman did more than make a simple oral expression of regrets. Wives of the five detectives received handwritten notes from the former chief executive.

A sample:

"To May Marik: With kindest regards from Harry Truman. It is certainly kind of you to let Sgt. Rudy help me. H. S. T."

DeGaulle Wins French Election By Big Margin

PARIS (AP) — Premier De Gaulle, without having lifted a finger in the campaign, won another strong endorsement from the French people in first-round voting Sunday for the new National Assembly.

With many candidates trying to ride De Gaulle's coattails, outright foes of the Premier made the poorest showing.

A strong rightist swing was accompanied by a Communist decline, though the anti-Gaullist Communists were still the strongest single party. Red chieftain Jacques Duclos faced a stiff fight in the runoff next Sunday.

The De Gaulle tide swamped such non-Communist foes as former Premiers Pierre Mendes-France and Maurice Bourges-Maunoury. Both lost their Assembly seats on the first ballot.

It boomed to second rank—after the Communists—a brand new De Gaullist party, the Union for the New Republic (UNR) headed by Information Minister Jacques Soustelle.

This was the clearcut trend through only 41 of the 465 deputies from mainland France were elected by a majority vote over all opponents. The remainder will be chosen in runoffs next Sunday, when a winner will need only a plurality.

With only 20,994,797 of the 28 million eligible bothering to vote, the Interior Ministry gave this breakdown of the results:

Communists, elected 1 deputy, 3,882,204 popular votes, 18.94 per cent of the vote.

UNR, 8 deputies, 3,603,958 votes 17.6 per cent.

Socialists, 2 deputies, 3,167,354 votes, 15.5 per cent.

Independents, mostly rightists, 15 deputies, 2,816,176 votes, 13.74 per cent.

The remaining votes were scattered among 14 other parties and groups.

The Communist percentage compared with 25.6 in the last general election of 1956, and the Red popular vote compared with their peak strength of 5½ million votes in 1946. They held 142 seats in the old Assembly.

Projection of the trend could cut the Communists to below 30 seats.

De Gaulle lent his name officially to none of the candidates. But with issues few, candidates of all stripes grabbed his coattails as the most attractive thing in sight.

Benefiting most was the empire-minded Soustelle, who helped boost De Gaulle back to power last May during the rightist rebellion in Algeria.

How To Deal With East Germany Eyed

BERLIN (AP) — The Western powers were reported still unable to agree today on a policy of unified action toward the Communist challenge in Berlin.

There were many indications that the United States, Britain and France were finding it difficult to agree on a plan of action if and when Soviet Premier Khrushchev unlimbers a definite proposal for dismantling the four-power regime for the city.

Khrushchev declared two weeks ago that the Soviet Union was ready to pull out of the four-power setup, a leftover from the victorious Allies' cooperation in Germany, and leave the Western powers on their own in dealing with the East Germans.

The West's dilemma was how far to go in dealing with Moscow's East German satellite. Despite official denials, reports persisted here, in London, in Washington and in Bonn that the British see less danger in such dealing than do the Americans, French or West Germans.

The West German government dealings with the East German in Bonn is opposed to any Western Reds. It favors the use of tanks to break down the barricades and fighting planes to protect an airlift if the East Germans get tough about letting supplies through to the 10,000 British, American and French troops holding the island of West Berlin, 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

The West's uncertainty seemed to stem partly from the fact it was still facing an "iffy" situation. So far, Khrushchev hadn't lifted a finger to carry out his threat.

A top official at U.S. headquarters here indicated there had been no Western decision because "after all the Russians haven't announced what they're going to do."

One suggestion has been that the Western nations would negotiate with the East Germans only as the agents of the Soviet Union on their traffic rights to West Berlin, with the specific reservation that the negotiations did not constitute official recognition of the East German government.

The British were reported agreeable to that plan. The West Germans oppose it on the grounds that it would lead togradual recognition and the blasting of the hopes of 17 million East Germans for liberation from Red rule. The United States and France were reported doubtful.

Under four-power agreements, the West is entitled to access to Berlin. The West was united in the stand that the Soviet Union should be held to her duties under the agreements. But if she pulls out there is nothing they can do about it.

Some observers felt that the Soviet silence on her next move was part of a double-barreled campaign to raise tension and suspense.

Farmer Alarmed; Visitors Ask To Feel His Water Well

MONMOUTH, Ill. (AP)—Something even more bothersome than a warm-water well has begun to plague farmer Chalmer Lovedahl and his wife, Rachael. It's people.

People by the carloads, out for a drive on the fine autumn day, are eager to "come and look and feel," as he puts it.

Lovedahl counted at least 150 visitors Sunday, he said. His wife counted a dozen cars at one time parked along the gravel road which skirts the house.

The object of the curiosity is a 30-foot well which used to give the Lovedahls plenty of sparkling cold water. But recently it turned tepid, then warmish and, finally, downright hot, A reading Friday placed the water's temperature at 110 degrees Fahrenheit.

No one knows why—not even the state water survey chemist — but the well gets warmer as the days grow colder.

Lovedahl told a reporter that he gets lots of free advice and opinion. Mail from Colorado and California, suggested he might have uranium or zinc or other minerals on his farm-land.

It was also suggested that an underground coal vein near the well might be on fire. That's possible, he conjectured, but then why doesn't another well 40 yards away turn hot too?

About the heavy traffic to and from the farm, Lovedahl sighed "It's just a little bit alarming. Makes me kind of nervous."

Mrs. Lovedahl said they toyed with the idea of charging admission.

It also seems implicit in the understanding between the two men that Rockefeller will not lend his support to any stop-Nixon move such as Harold E. Stassen is trying to get off the ground.

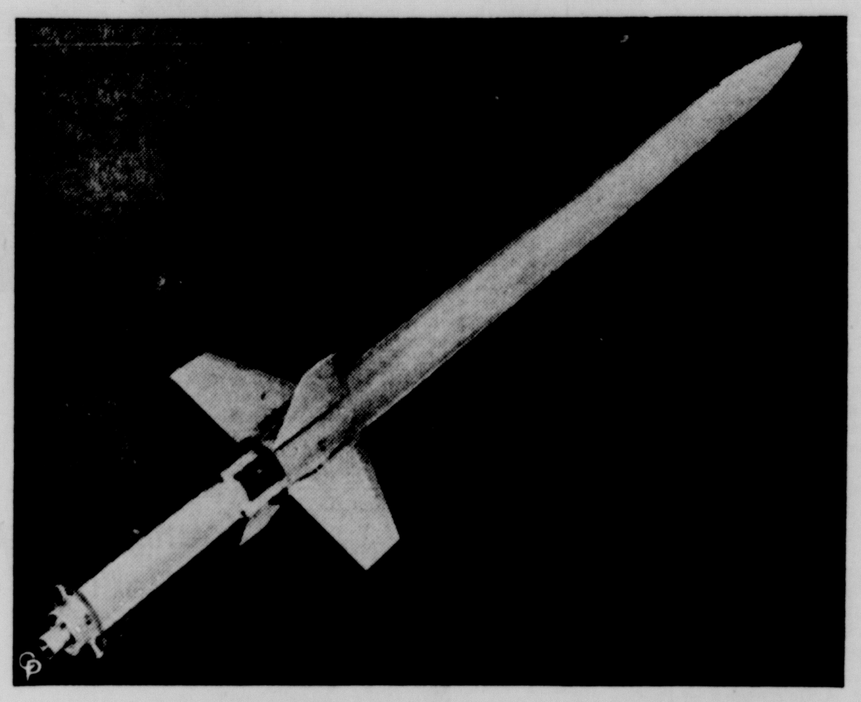
Stassen, a former aide to President Eisenhower, pointedly omitted Nixon's name and included Rockefeller's in a personal listing of possibile candidates for the 1960 GOP nomination.

In response to a question, Rockefeller said it seemed so obvious Nixon's name belongs on any list of prospects "that it hardly needs my comment to reassure him."

Stassen tried without success to dump Nixon from the GOP national ticket in 1956.

Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz), who won re-election this month in the face of a national Democratic sweep, said Nixon is "my candidate" now for the presidential nomination.

Goldwater said in a radio-TV interview that Rockefeller should receive consideration in 1960 if he does a good job as governor and, as Goldwater put it, doesn't "take up the radical cry of the Democrats."



NEW SOUNDING MISSILE — This is the Arcon high sounding rocket, a new meteorlogical missile developed for the U.S. Navy to study the upper atmosphere. It will also provide the Navy's Bureau of Ordnance in Washington with data to compare rocket vibration forces of solid propellant rockets of different sizes but the same design. It can carry a 40-pound payload of instruments to a height of approximately sixty-five miles, it was revealed by Defense Department.

How To Deal With East Germany Eyed

BERLIN (AP) — The Western powers were reported still unable to agree today on a policy of unified action toward the Communist challenge in Berlin.

There were many indications that the United States, Britain and France were finding it difficult to agree on a plan of action if and when Soviet Premier Khrushchev unlimbers a definite proposal for dismantling the four-power regime for the city.

Khrushchev declared two weeks ago that the Soviet Union was ready to pull out of the four-power setup, a leftover from the victorious Allies' cooperation in Germany, and leave the Western powers on their own in dealing with the East Germans.

The West's dilemma was how far to go in dealing with Moscow's East German satellite. Despite official denials, reports persisted here, in London, in Washington and in Bonn that the British see less danger in such dealing than do the Americans, French or West Germans.

The West German government dealings with the East German in Bonn is opposed to any Western Reds. It favors the use of tanks to break down the barricades and fighting planes to protect an airlift if the East Germans get tough about letting supplies through to the 10,000 British, American and French troops holding the island of West Berlin, 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain.

The West's uncertainty seemed to stem partly from the fact it was still facing an "iffy" situation. So far, Khrushchev hadn't lifted a finger to carry out his threat.

A top official at U.S. headquarters here indicated there had been no Western decision because "after all the Russians haven't announced what they're going to do."

One suggestion has been that the Western nations would negotiate with the East Germans only as the agents of the Soviet Union on their traffic rights to West Berlin, with the specific reservation that the negotiations did not constitute official recognition of the East German government.

The British were reported agreeable to that plan. The West Germans oppose it on the grounds that it would lead togradual recognition and the blasting of the hopes of 17 million East Germans for liberation from Red rule. The United States and France were reported doubtful.

Under four-power agreements, the West is entitled to access to Berlin. The West was united in the stand that the Soviet Union should be held to her duties under the agreements. But if she pulls out there is nothing they can do about it.

Some observers felt that the Soviet silence on her next move was part of a double-barreled campaign to raise tension and suspense.

Officials Meet For Talks on Waste Control

The question of whether or not Circleville can keep on polluting the Scioto River comes up again tomorrow.

City officials and officers of the Container Corporation of America will meet with engineers of the Ohio Board of Health at 9:30 a. m. tomorrow in Columbus.

The meeting is required by law. The men will discuss the steps Circleville has taken to halt pollution of the Scioto. Circleville has applied to the Ohio Board of Water Pollution Control for a permit to pollute the stream.

The city's current permit expires December 15. This is the eighth time the city has asked for renewal of its permit.

Meeting with the state officials will be Irvin Leist, manager of public utilities, Ray Hawks and Carl DeBruin, sewage treatment plant employes; H. J. Schroeder, plant manager of the Container Corporation of America; Ray Fuller and Robert Boes, engineers of Burgess & Niple, Columbus consulting firm.

BURGESS & NIPLE have been conducting experiments, paid for by CCA and the city, to determine if the city's wastes can be treated to meet the requirements of the state Board of Water Pollution Control.

Principal problem of the city's sewage treatment is the waste poured into the system by Container Corporation. Container waste, like that of other paper manufacturing plants, is difficult to treat and represents the major problem for the city treatment plant.

Leist said today that the Burgess & Niple experiments with city and container wastes have proved that the matter can be treated, but at huge cost.

Five Youths Hurt When Car Crashes

Five youths were injured, none seriously, when the car in which they were riding crashed on the Circleville-Stoutsville Pike about three miles east of here at 1:15 p. m. yesterday.

The auto was driven by Donald D. Guseman, 18, Route 2, Amanda, who was treated at Berger Hospital for contusions and abrasions.

Passengers taken to the hospital were: Marion Guseman, 15, Route 2, Amanda, abrasions; James Aldenderfer, 18, Route 1, Stoutsville, multiple abrasions, back injuries and possible concussion; Billy Lee Carter, 17, Route 1, Stoutsville, abrasions; and Jerry Kerns, 19, Route 2, Amanda, lacerations and contusions.

Aldenderfer was admitted to the hospital. The others were treated and released.

* * *

DEPUTY Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said Guseman's westbound car apparently went out of control on a curve and rolled over. Aldenderfer and Marion Guseman were thrown from the auto, the deputy added.

Radcliff said Guseman would be cited for reckless operation. The auto was demolished.

State Law Untangles Knot On Torch Slaying Trial Site

CINCINNATI (AP)—Police say they have untangled a legal knot on where Mrs. Edythe Klumpp should be prosecuted in the torch death of a rival.

The answer lies in powers under the Ohio Criminal Code, a spokesman said Sunday.

He said this gives officers a green light to pursue prosecution of the blonde, night school teacher accused of first degree murder here—or in Clinton County—in the death of Mrs. Martha Louise Bergen, 32.

Officers asked for a delay at a preliminary hearing last Friday when Mrs. Klumpp's attorney, William F. Hopkins, raised the point of the two charges and the lack of official ruling on how and where Mrs. Bergen died.

The next hearing is set for Wednesday.

Mrs. Bergen's body heavily mutilated by fire, was discovered by hunters last Nov. 1 at a state lake near Wilmington.

She was identified through keys and a necklace found near the body. The county pathologist here, Dr. Frank Cleveland, first said his autopsy showed two skull fractures. He said she may still have been alive when set afire with gasoline.

But after her arrest, police said Mrs. Klumpp told them the woman was shot in the throat and killed as they wrestled over a gun. She said she hauled the body around in the trunk of her car for a day before burning it in the adjoining county.

Later tests by Dr. Cleveland turned up traces of metal in the throat of the body and carbon monoxide in the blood. He said this carbon monoxide could have come from the car's exhaust, but did not comment further.

Police said they believe this is the statute that applies to the case:

"If any mortal wound is given or other violence or injury inflicted, or any poison administered or sent into one county by means whereof death occurs in another county, the offender may be prosecuted in either county."

The State Highway Patrol at Wilmington, which filed the other first degree murder charge, has not yet indicated whether it will seek jurisdiction in the case.

Investigators said their suspicions shifted to Mrs. Klumpp after she gave them a phony lead in the case.

Pacifist Shuns Hearing Again

U.S. Judge Orders Arrest of Cleric

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, Cincinnati's pacifist minister, failed to show up in U.S. District Court here again today. Judge John H. Druffel ordered a bench warrant issued for his arrest.

It was the second time the Rev. Mr. McCrackin failed to appear to answer to an indictment charging him with failure to reply to an Internal Revenue Service summons on his income tax troubles.

The minister has refused to pay all of his income taxes for the last 10 years because part of the money goes for military purposes.

When his case came up at noon today, the court bailiff called for him three times in a well-filled courtroom and three times in the hallway. There was no reply.

The minister said Sunday night, "I will be unable to respond to the summons which has been issued for my appearance tomorrow (Monday)."

This is in line with his actions in previous procedures on a charge he failed to answer a summons to discuss his income taxes with internal revenue officials.

At the first arraignment, Nov. 14, court aides had to carry him into the courtroom. He refused to come voluntarily.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin refused to stand or enter a plea and fought efforts to appoint attorneys for him.

This led to a sanity examination in which three psychiatrists reportee him mentally fit.Hewas released from custody last Thursday after six days in which he fasted and prayed.

The minister—of west Cincinnati St. Barnabas Church—has refused to pay part or all his income taxes in the past 10 years because they pay for arms.

He said Sunday night:

"We have certainly not reached the place where we do not need laws and the court.

"But in this particular instance I feel the court is cooperating in an effort to collect money for war which is wrong and in an effort to coerce my conscience to support what I believe is sin."

DeGaulle Wins French Election By Big Margin

PARIS (AP) — Premier De Gaulle, without having lifted a finger in the campaign, won another strong endorsement from the French people in first-round voting Sunday for the new National Assembly.

With many candidates trying to ride De Gaulle's coattails, outright foes of the Premier made the poorest showing.

A strong rightist swing was accompanied by a Communist decline, though the anti-Gaullist Communists were still the strongest single party. Red chieftain Jacques Duclos faced a stiff fight in the runoff next Sunday.

The De Gaulle tide swamped such non-Communist foes as former Premiers Pierre Mendes-France and Maurice Bourges-Maunoury. Both lost their Assembly seats on the first ballot.

It boomed to second rank—after the Communists—a brand new De Gaullist party, the Union for the New Republic (UNR) headed by Information Minister Jacques Soustelle.

This was the clearcut trend through only 41 of the 465 deputies from mainland France were elected by a majority vote over all opponents. The remainder will be chosen in runoffs next Sunday, when a winner will need only a plurality.

With only 20,994,797 of the 28 million eligible bothering to vote, the Interior Ministry gave this breakdown of the results:

Communists, elected 1 deputy, 3,882,204 popular votes, 18.94 per cent of the vote.

UNR, 8 deputies, 3,603,958 votes 17.6 per cent.

Socialists, 2 deputies, 3,167,354 votes, 15.5 per cent.

Independents, mostly rightists, 15 deputies, 2,816,176 votes, 13.74 per cent.

The remaining votes were scattered among 14 other parties and groups.

The Communist percentage compared with 25.6 in the last general election of 1956, and the Red popular vote compared with their peak strength of 5½ million votes in 1946. They held 142 seats in the old Assembly.

Projection of the trend could cut the Communists to below 30 seats.

De Gaulle lent his name officially to none of the candidates. But with issues few, candidates of all stripes grabbed his coattails as the most attractive thing in sight.

Benefiting most was the empire-minded Soustelle, who helped boost De Gaulle back to power last May during the rightist rebellion in Algeria.

Corn Growers Vote Tuesday

Pickaway County corn producers will go to the polls tomorrow to vote on a 1959 corn program.

Eligible to vote is anyone who raised corn on his farm, owner or operator.

The corn producers will decide on whether to keep the current acreage allotments with price support at 75 to 90 per cent of parity, or to eliminate acreage allotments and peg prices at 90 per cent of the average price received during the last three years, but not less than 65 per cent of parity.

Here is where Pickaway County corn producers are to vote:

Residents of Circleville, Jackson, Pickaway, Saltcreek, Washington and Wayne Twps., at the American Legion Hall, 138 E. Main St., Circleville:

Residents of Harrison, Madison and Walnut Twp., at Harrison Twp. House; residents of Deercreek, Perry and Monroe Twp., at Pavillion at Williamsport; residents of Darby, Muhlenberg and Scioto Twps. at Township House, Derby.

The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 6 p. m.

Farmer Alarmed; Visitors Ask To Feel His Water Well

MONMOUTH, Ill. (AP)—Something even more bothersome than a warm-water well has begun to plague farmer Chalmer Lovedahl and his wife, Rachael. It's people.

People by the carloads, out for a drive on the fine autumn day, are eager to "come and look and feel," as he puts it.

Lovedahl counted at least 150 visitors Sunday, he said. His wife counted a dozen cars at one time parked along the gravel road which skirts the house.

The object of the curiosity is a 30-foot well which used to give the Lovedahls plenty of sparkling cold water. But recently it turned tepid, then warmish and, finally, downright hot. A reading Friday placed the water's temperature at 110 degrees Fahrenheit.

No one knows why—not even the state water survey chemist — but the well gets warmer as the days grow colder.

Lovedahl told a reporter that he gets lots of free advice and opinion. Mail from Colorado and California, suggested he might have uranium or zinc or other minerals on his farm-land.

It was also suggested that an underground coal vein near the well might be on fire. That's possible, he conjectured, but then why doesn't another well 40 yards away turn hot too?

About the heavy traffic to and from the farm, Lovedahl sighed "It's just a little bit alarming. Makes me kind of nervous."

Mrs. Lovedahl said they toyed with the idea of charging admission.

Reds Silence Guns After Heavy Fire

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Communist shore batteries lifted their fire today after pounding the Quemoy Islands with the heaviest barrage in nearly three weeks.

The Red guns fell silent on this even-numbered, no-shelling day. The Quemoy garrison reported hundreds of Communist soldiers went back to work on coastal fortifications facing the offshore islands.

Nationalist defense headquarters said the Reds unloaded 1,975 shells on Quemoy and the smaller islands Sunday. This was the heaviest fire since Nov. 5, when the Communists laid down 5,594 rounds.

Return fire by the Nationalist garrison was described as heavy.

Detectives' Wives Get HST's Thanks

CLEVELAND (AP) — When former President Harry S. Truman came here last month to help the Democratic campaign, he told five detectives who were with him almost constantly for three days as bodyguards that he was sorry to have to keep them away from their families.

Now, it has come to light that Truman did more than make a simple oral expression of regrets. Wives of the five detectives received handwritten notes from the former chief executive.

A sample:

"To May Marik: With kindest regards from Harry Truman. It is certainly kind of you to let Sgt. Rudy help me. H. S. T."

Mamie Wants Ike To Play Golf

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — It's more golf for President Eisenhower today and it's quite all right with his wife.

The First Lady gave the assurance publicly Sunday on the steps of the Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church.

As she and the vacationing President were leaving after morning services, the pastor, Dr. Charles H. Gibboney, noted the beautiful autumn weather and remarked to Mrs. Eisenhower: "This is the kind of weather that makes it hard to keep the President home and off the golf course."

"I don't want to keep him off," the First Lady replied, flashing a smile. "I want him to be there."

And right there he was just a bit later, getting in another 18 holes at the Augusta National Golf Club course.

County Boards Approve Ditch

Mud Run Plans To Be Filed Feb. 10

The joint Board of Commissioners from Pickaway, Ross and Fayette Counties November 10 approved the reconstruction of the Mud Run Ditch was petitioned for by McKinley Kirk, Washington C. H.

The joint commissioner boards recently viewed the proposed ditch reconstruction and heard evidence for and against the project. Weighing all the factors the boards felt the project worthwhile and that its costs will be less than the benefits derived from it.

The ditch project was estimated to cost $70,412 by Pickaway County Engineer Henry McCrady. The ditch also known as Hamilton Ditch and Kirkpatrick Ditch, is to be reconstructed, widened, deepened, straightened, altered, cleaned and repaired.

It runs from Paint Creek north to County Road 25. The County Auditor was authorized to transfer $5,995.02 from general revenue funds to general drainage improvement funds.

* * *

THE BOARDS directed a necessary survey to be made and its filing date as Feb. 10, 1959. At this time all maps, profiles, schedules and reports by the county engineer must be filed with the clerk. A hearing date was set at this time also.

November 17 the Commissioners approved the general plans for the sewer and sewage disposal improvements for the Knollwood Village sewer district as complete. They were drawn by Elmer S. Barrett Associates, Consulting Engineers, Chillicothe.

A hearing will be held at 10 a. m. December 8 for the Commissioners to hear objections of all owners who are to be assessed for the sewer improvements.

November 10 the Commissioners approved bills and claims against the county totalling $49,879.44 and November 17 approved bills amounting to $10,576.43.

The following transfers were made the past two weeks: from the general fund to ditch fund, $5,000; from miscellaneous funds to ditch, $386.52; from compensation of employes to maintenance of children in other homes, $500; From supplies to extra help for board of elections, $500; from supplies to other expenses, $1,000; and from other expenses to road machinery and equipment, $3,000.

Radioactive Youth Released from Hospital

TYLER, Tex. (AP) — A youth responsible for a radioactivity scare here has been released from a hospital as completely recovered from radium burns on his hands.

The youth, Johnny Pierce, 19, startled the community earlier this month by saying he had spilled radioactive cobalt-60 on his hands while conducting an experiment. This set off a search of the town for possible contamination.

Later, Pierce admitted he was burned while handling a radium needle he had obtained at the hospital where he works part time as an X-ray technician.

Young Hunter Is Wounded

Ronald Wilt, 11, Columbus, was slightly injured in ahunting accident at 12:30 p. m. Saturday near Williamsport.

Deputy Sheriff Dwight Radcliff said the youngster was struck in the nose by a pellet from a shotgun. He was treated and released at Berger Hospital.

Deputy Radcliff said Wilt was hunting with his father and two other men on the Howard White farm south of Williamsport.

The deputy said the shot was fired by Gordon Hunt, 39, Route 3, Chillicothe, who was hunting in an opposite field. The single pellet apparently skipped off a fence and struck young Wilt in the face. Hunt had fired at a rabbit.

Stoutsville Man Alters OMVI Plea

Harold Goldsberry, Route 1, Stoutsville, Saturday in Pickaway County Common Pleas Court changed his earlier plea of innocent to guilty of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicants.

He was fined $100 and costs and had his driving rights suspended for six months with partial restoration for business purposes only.

His jail sentence of three days was deferred until such time as his doctor reports he is physically able to serve the sentence. Goldsberry's doctor's testimony said a term in jail at this time would further impair his health.

Florida Sheriff Solves 18-Year-Old Slaying of Dad

CRESTVIEW, Fla. (AP)—Sheriff Ray Wilson's probe of his father's 18-year-old slaying has ended in conviction of two Crestview brothers.

The Okaloosa County officer was a 12-year-old boy when a shotgun blast fatally wounded Crestview Police Chief Lester Wilson. The boy grew up, became sheriff two years ago and launched a new investigation that reached out as far as Texas and North Carolina for witnesses.

A Circuit Court jury Sunday found Jesse Cayson, 56, and Cayson's brother Doyle, 51, guilty of first degree murder in the 1940 killing. It recommended mercy, which means sentences of life imprisonment for both men.

William Dorace Brown, 49, accused with the Caysons, was acquitted.

A prosecution witness, Mrs. Mattie Lee Taylor Boeck of San Antonio, Tex., testified she saw the three defendants in a cafe the night of the slaying and later saw them follow Wilson in a car with lights off.

Mrs. Boeck said she was beaten up later that night by an unidentified assailant who threatened worse "if you don't forget what you saw tonight."

Another prosecution witness, Mrs. Marjorie King of Rocky Mount, N.C., said she heard three men urge Jesse Cayson to go to the state mental hospital at Chattahoochee because they had heard he was going around the county saying he had shot Wilson.

Cayson testified he was sent to the hospital in 1943 because he was "too full of whisky."

Both Caysons and Brown contended they were elsewhere when Wilson was killed.

Cop Unable To Halt Death Sprint of Car

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — A woman drove to her death early today as a policeman in a cruiser vainly tried to tell her how to shut off the ignition of her speeding automobile as it approached a steep hill.

The woman was identified as Myrtle Einhaus, 49.

Officer Elsworth Greiner said he was sitting in a restaurant drinking a cup of coffee when his cruiser was sideswiped. He dashed outside, jumped into his car and gave chase.

"Pull over to the curb," he demanded of the woman driver when he drew alongside.

"I can't stop the car!" she cried out.

"Turn off the ignition key," Greiner directed.

"I can't find it!" she shouted back.

Approaching cars forced the officer to drop back as the woman reached a hill. There is a turn at the end of the hill. Mrs. Einhaus failed to make it. Her car hit a pole and she was killed.

71 Counties To Vote on Corn Issue

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Farmers in Ohio's 71 commercial corn counties join Tuesday in a national referendum on corn acreage allotments.

They will be voting from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on two alternatives:

1. Continued acreage allotments with price support between 75 and 90 per cent of parity available to those who stay within allotments.

2. Discontinuance of acreage allotments and a price support level of 90 per cent of the average market price received by farmers in the last three years, but not less than 65 per cent of parity.

Riley Dougan, an Ohio State University agricultural economist, estimates that if corn allotments are dropped, the price support on corn would be about $1.15 a bushel. Continued allotments, he estimates, would mean a support rate of about $1.30 a bushel for farmers who stay within their allotments.

Mamie Wants Ike To Play Golf

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — It's more golf for President Eisenhower today and it's quite all right with his wife.

The First Lady gave the assurance publicly Sunday on the steps of the Reid Memorial Presbyterian Church.

As she and the vacationing President were leaving after morning services, the pastor, Dr. Charles H. Gibboney, noted the beautiful autumn weather and remarked to Mrs. Eisenhower: "This is the kind of weather that makes it hard to keep the President home and off the golf course."

"I don't want to keep him off," the First Lady replied, flashing a smile. "I want him to be there."

And right there he was just a bit later, getting in another 18 holes at the Augusta National Golf Club course.

The ditch project was estimated to cost $70,412 by Pickaway County Engineer Henry McCrady. The ditch also known as Hamilton Ditch and Kirkpatrick Ditch, is to be reconstructed, widened, deepened, straightened, altered, cleaned and repaired.

It runs from Paint Creek north to County Road 25. The County Auditor was authorized to transfer $5,995.02 from general revenue funds to general drainage improvement funds.

He was fined $100 and costs and had his driving rights suspended for six months with partial restoration for business purposes only.

Space Should Be Free Too

What the discovery of the New World was to the 15th Century the conquest of space will be to the 20th or 21st. If not in this century then certainly in the next, man will reach other planets, which will offer opportunities and challenges which can now be only dimly seen.

European nations fought for centuries over possession of the Americas. That the earth can escape conflict over exploration and colonization of the moon and Mars and Venus is a hope remote but worth working for.

A decade ago such concerns were reserved for the pages of science fiction, where were fought wars between worlds and galaxies. Now fact is gaining on fiction and an attempt to avert the extension into space of the quarrels of earth has become an immediate need.

Now man has an opportunity to write an international covenant to insure peace in outer space. Such an agreement has been proposed by the United States and 19 other nations. Nationalism has perhaps been unavoidable in occupying the land masses of earth. But among the stars politics must achieve the maturity of science. To outer space must be applied the principle that has made the sea the common property of all nations, through which all may move freely.

"Today outer space is free and unscarred by conflict," says Sen. Lyndon Johnson, majority leader of the Senate. "No nation holds a concession there. It must remain this way. The United States does not acknowledge landlords of outer space who can presume to bargain with the nations on the price of access to this new domain."

His position, whcih is also the position of the Eisenhower administration, is consistent with traditional American policy. It is consistent with this nation's long insistence on freedom of the seas.

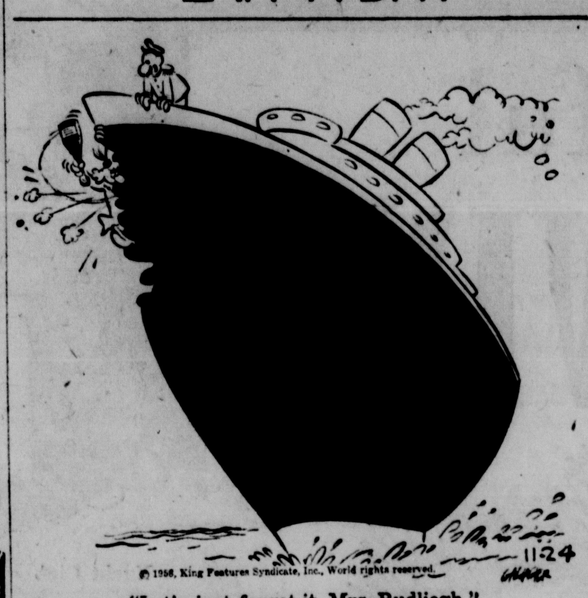
LAFF-A-DAY



"Let's just forget it, Mrs. Rudliegh."

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has been getting some rest at Augusta, Ga. He may need it to see him through this next year.

It could be a nerve-gnawing time.

Just a couple of things come to mind: the Russians, government spending and maybe Vice President Nixon.

Right now Eisenhower doesn't know what he faces at Berlin, where the Russians and East German Communists are maneuvering to get the Western Allies out of the city.

Eisenhower announced Nov. 5, the day after the Republicans' election disaster, that his 1959 goal is less spending.

But if the Communists impose a land blockade against supplies for West Berlin, the Allies may have to try the airlift again, boosting the cost of the American government.

As part of his economy drive, Eisenhower wants to reduce the size of the armed forces. But, because of the unpredictability of events around Berlin, he cannot at this moment know what armed forces he will need in 1959.

Economy in government—somewhere and of some kind—seems in order. This year, with revenue reduced by the recession, the government faces a deficit of around 12 billion dollars.

Next year, if the economy booms, revenue will increase but Eisenhower will still have the responsibility of trying to keep spending down, close to or below revenue.

He is anxious, of course, to see his Republican party in a favorable light when it meets the voters again in 1960.

If he plays it too cautiously, it would not be surprising to see Vice President Nixon break with him: not in an explosive rupture but by taking a less conservative position than the President's.

For six years—except during the election campaigns—Nixon, by the very nature of his job, had to live within the shadow of Eisenhower.

Somehow Nixon has to establish himself in the voters' minds—if he has any presidential hopes for 1960—as an individual identity standing for something that has wide, popular appeal.

An overly conservative Eisenhower will almost force Nixon to choose a different road, out in the open. A split between the two men would not make Eisenhower's remaining White House days any easier.

Rhode Island, Delaware and Connecticut are the smallest states in the Union.

All Burned Up

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Glenwood Farms firemen burned down a home after setting it afire several times.

The building was abandoned. They set fires in several rooms, then put them out. It was all to train volunteers. When the building finally burned the volunteers engaged in a water fight.

Trust Doctor on Drugs

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Just about all of you, I'm sure, are aware of the drug addiction.

And no doubt many of you recall stories about how some of our fighting men in World War II became dope addicts because of the drugs they took to ease the pain of their wounds.

It is for this reason that many persons—more than you might imagine—don't like to take any pain-killing drug stronger than aspirin. The mere mention of the word morphine makes them shudder.

Now I certainly don't recommend that you take any medicine if you don't need it. That's only common sense. On the other hand, if your doctor prescribes some specific drug—morphine, for example—for you or a member of your family, follow his advice. That's common sense, too.

There are many forms of morphine and the drug is used to relieve pain in a variety of ailments.

Take a coronary thrombosis, a heart attack, for example. Not only does morphine relieve the pain, but it helps to quiet a heart patient. The latter is highly important because restlessness taxes an already overstrained heart. Morphine relaxes both the mind and the muscles, thus reducing the heart's work load.

Certainly you trust your doctor. If you didn't, you wouldn't have him as your family physician. Therefore, don't be afraid that a member of your family will become a drug addict simply because your doctor recommends a few injections of morphine.

Your doctor is well aware of the dangers of addiction. He won't give any more injections of morphine or any other potent drugs than are absolutely necessary.

Morphine isn't a pleasant drug to take anyway, so don't think that a couple of injections will create a craving for it. Generally it causes nausea and frequent vomiting. The vomiting doesn't stop until the drug is eliminated from your system.

The type of drug to use in any serious illness is a matter only your doctor can decide. Once he decides, go along with that decision. But don't you be the one who decides.

Question and Answer

A.W.K.: Is diabetes hereditary, and do children outgrow it?

Answer: The tendency toward diabetes tends to run in families. In children, it may be a very serious condition and should be treated vigorously. It is seldom "outgrown."

Orphanhood Rate Slowing

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Today's child has one smaller worry than his grandfather did—he is less likely to become orphan. One of every four children born at the turn of the century faced the prospect of becoming an orphan before the age of 18. Now the figure is one out of seven.

Don't fret too much if your kid is born with a strawberry birthmark. It happens to about 1 of every 10 children. Often they disappear before school age without treatment of any kind.

A survey shows that each year fewer business firms are holding Christmas parties on the office premises. Chalk up another for the wives.

Someone has figured out that if a comet collided with the earth, it would release energy equal to the explosion of a million or more atom bombs. It's helpful to know these things ahead of time.

Sign on the desk of Irwin H. Kramer of the Hotel Edison here: "Bank on the future—but don't issue checks against it."

If you're interested in a growing business field, don't overlook the possibility in diapers. The world's population is growing at the rate of 100,000 a day.

Nicotine addicts may want to treasure this consoling word from Dr. Albert Einstein: "Pipe smoking contributes to a somewhat calm and objective judgment in all human affairs."

Here's a tip for housewives to keep their silverware from tarnishing. Wrap a piece of charcoal in tissue paper and keep it in the silver chest.

A British scientist feels girl swimmers are more likely to set records during their teens than at a later age because then they have more buoyant fat, more muscular power, and less distracting interest in boy friends. Mark you, this is in Britain.

The University of Illinois has a study underway to determine whether people can be identified as easily by the shape of their ears as by their fingerprints. Well, that's one way to tell Clark Gable from Marilyn Monroe, if you're in a real hurry.

The kiwi bird in New Zealand has a sneaky trick. It stamps on the ground with its big feet to convince worms a heavy rain is falling. Then it beaks the worms when they come up looking for a free drink.

Through experimental hormone injections, veterinarians now can cause cows to give milk who have never had a calf. If you're a city feller, you probably never knew that cows don't ordinarily fill milk bottles before motherhood.

The slogan "See you're dentist at least twice a year" hasn't quite caught on. A study by the Public Health Service showed only 36 per cent of the Americans visited a dentist last year. And 42 per cent hadn't done so in the last three years.

Despite the march of science in an ever more crowded world, only nine per cent of the earth's land is under cultivation. No one yet has found a way to plow the Rocky Mountains.

Actor Walter Slezak says his three children are all at the perfect age, "too old to cry at night and too young to borrow the family car."

It was Oliver Wendell Holmes who observed: "A man should share the passion of his times or else consider himself not to have lived."

Divisive Force Increases

By George Sokolsky

It was bound to happen that the Supreme Court decisions concerning integration, as it is called, would have ugly overtones. Already Little Rock has become a symbolic term and is an incalculable item in world affairs. Already, within this country, the question of integration of a school system has become subordinated in many minds to the broader problem of social assimilation.

The time is wrong for dissension among the American people because we face a formidable foe who is making war upon us by new methods. And as long as the enemy limits himself to new methods, many elements among the American people do not recognize the nature of this war and believe that they can afford to pursue their ordinary problems of living.

To suggest that we are at war is like saying a dirty word. Nevertheless we are at war and some of the new methods are devastating without even the appearance of shooting. One of these is divisive propaganda and to it the Communists have devoted themselves in every country.

The opposition to the Negro, which is rising beyond the question of integration, is based upon a widespread opposition to racial intermarriage, which is generally termed mongrelization. This opposition appears on both sides of the racial equation, and while there are some who prefer not to discuss it, the fact is that it needs to be discussed because it is a norm in American life.

Most people, of a kind, prefer their own kind. You might relate it to the ancient dictum, "birds of a feather flock together," or you might use Professor Giddings' rather old-fashioned phrase, community of kind—the fact is that all over the world, in every stage of civilization, those who marry "out" are not favored.

In the United States, this has been true to the degree that a number of states have laws forbidding miscegenation which is an early form of South African apartheid. Opposition to any form of intermarriage, Catholic with Protestant, Jew with Christian, Negro and white, is normal in American life. It used to be objectionable for a Southerner to marry a Yankee, but that was temporary and no longer exists. The normal problem between whites and blacks in the United States is not the schools but intermarriage.

As anti-Negroism increases, particularly in the North and in California, anti-Catholic and anti-Semitic movements also expand. Particularly astonishing is the depth of anti-Catholicism at this particular moment. Perhaps what bothers the anti-Catholics most is their fear that a Catholic might become President of the United States.

Both Jews and Catholics are blamed for integration. The main argument against the Catholics is that their parochial schools are integrated; the argument against Jews is that the Supreme Court is dominated by Jews who favor mongrelization.

I have before me a publication, "The Virginian," No. 2. This is what it says about itself:

"THE VIRGINIAN is one of the few publications which dare to tell the whole truth about the plot to mongrelize white America. Each month it prints important facts which the plotters don't want you to know — and prints them in attractive, easy-to-read style, on high quality paper. With pictures, too! Why not subscribe to THE VIRGINIAN today?"

The issue which I have deals with one, Leonard Schroeter, who is described as director of the Washington regional office of the Anti-Defamation League. The first page of the pamphlet is a photograph of a news item which appeared in the Oregon Journal on Dec. 9, 1954. It is a report of a speech delivered by Schroeter which says many rather exaggerated things.

It needs to be pointed out that whereas the Bishops can speak officially for the Catholic Church in the United States, no organization is empowered to speak officially for American Jews who have never chosen such an organization or accepted one.

Nevertheless, when divisive efforts are at work, every scrap of documentation becomes important. "The Virginian" that came to me did not arrive in 1954 but in 1958 and during those years much has happened in the United States to force even a moron to grasp the central fact that these divisions that are coming between us with such vehemence are dangerous. In good times, a nation can afford any kind of nonsense; in bad times, anything can be a wrecker.

WE RESIGN—Wayne Upton, president of the integration-beset Little Rock, Ark., school board, announces the board's resignation—all but Dr. Dale Alford, the member who won Rep. Brooks Hays House seat—and the dismissal without cause of Virgil I. Blossom (right), school superintendent. Blossom gets $19,741 severance pay, for balance of contract.

"Let's just forget it, Mrs. Rudliegh."

Trust Doctor on Drugs

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Just about all of you, I'm sure, are aware of the drug addiction.

And no doubt many of you recall stories about how some of our fighting men in World War II became dope addicts because of the drugs they took to ease the pain of their wounds.

It is for this reason that many persons—more than you might imagine—don't like to take any pain-killing drug stronger than aspirin. The mere mention of the word morphine makes them shudder.

Now I certainly don't recommend that you take any medicine if you don't need it. That's only common sense. On the other hand, if your doctor prescribes some specific drug—morphine, for example—for you or a member of your family, follow his advice. That's common sense, too.

There are many forms of morphine and the drug is used to relieve pain in a variety of ailments.

Take a coronary thrombosis, a heart attack, for example. Not only does morphine relieve the pain, but it helps to quiet a heart patient. The latter is highly important because restlessness taxes an already overstrained heart. Morphine relaxes both the mind and the muscles, thus reducing the heart's work load.

Certainly you trust your doctor. If you didn't, you wouldn't have him as your family physician. Therefore, don't be afraid that a member of your family will become a drug addict simply because your doctor recommends a few injections of morphine.

Your doctor is well aware of the dangers of addiction. He won't give any more injections of morphine or any other potent drugs than are absolutely necessary.

Morphine isn't a pleasant drug to take anyway, so don't think that a couple of injections will create a craving for it. Generally it causes nausea and frequent vomiting. The vomiting doesn't stop until the drug is eliminated from your system.

The type of drug to use in any serious illness is a matter only your doctor can decide. Once he decides, go along with that decision. But don't you be the one who decides.

Question and Answer

A.W.K.: Is diabetes hereditary, and do children outgrow it?

Answer: The tendency toward diabetes tends to run in families. In children, it may be a very serious condition and should be treated vigorously. It is seldom "outgrown."

WE RESIGN—Wayne Upton, president of the integration-beset Little Rock, Ark., school board, announces the board's resignation—all but Dr. Dale Alford, the member who won Rep. Brooks Hays' House seat—and the dismissal without cause of Virgil I. Blossom (right), school superintendent. Blossom gets $19,741 severance pay, for balance of contract.

An Initial Loss

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — William T. Brooks was running for re-election to the State Corporation Commission. He was worried about one rival in particular—William A. Brooks — because of the confusion caused by similar names.

To emphasize the difference in the middle initials, he passed out campaign cards featuring a large "T"; on the other side was a little tea bag.

Came the primary—and Brooks lost. So did the other Brooks.

A. P. Buzard won in a close race.

The U. S. House of Representatives requires 219 votes for a majority since the admission of Alaska as a state, and 20 more are required for control.

Some Party

SHAWNEE, Okla. (AP) — The Shawnee Elks Club solved the problem of too little help and too much crab grass in its greens. It organized a "crab grass" party and invited members to the event which included the serving of refreshments.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has been getting some rest at Augusta, Ga. He may need it to see him through this next year.

It could be a nerve-gnawing time.

Just a couple of things come to mind: the Russians, government spending and maybe Vice President Nixon.

Right now Eisenhower doesn't know what he faces at Berlin, where the Russians and East German Communists are maneuvering to get the Western Allies out of the city.

Eisenhower announced Nov. 5, the day after the Republicans' election disaster, that his 1959 goal is less spending.

But if the Communists impose a land blockade against supplies for West Berlin, the Allies may have to try the airlift again, boosting the cost of the American government.

As part of his economy drive, Eisenhower wants to reduce the size of the armed forces. But, because of the unpredictability of events around Berlin, he cannot at this moment know what armed forces he will need in 1959.

Economy in government—somewhere and of some kind—seems in order. This year, with revenue reduced by the recession, the government faces a deficit of around 12 billion dollars.

Next year, if the economy booms, revenue will increase but Eisenhower will still have the responsibility of trying to keep spending down, close to or below revenue.

He is anxious, of course, to see his Republican party in a favorable light when it meets the voters again in 1960.

If he plays it too cautiously, it would not be surprising to see Vice President Nixon break with him: not in an explosive rupture but by taking a less conservative position than the President's.

For six years—except during the election campaigns—Nixon, by the very nature of his job, had to live within the shadow of Eisenhower.

Somehow Nixon has to establish himself in the voters' minds—if he has any presidential hopes for 1960—as an individual identity standing for something that has wide, popular appeal.

An overly conservative Eisenhower will almost force Nixon to choose a different road, out in the open. A split between the two men would not make Eisenhower's remaining White House days any easier.

Rhode Island, Delaware and Connecticut are the smallest states in the Union.

All Burned Up

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Glenwood Farms firemen burned down a home after setting it afire several times.

The building was abandoned. They set fires in several rooms, then put them out. It was all to train volunteers. When the building finally burned the volunteers engaged in a water fight.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I can't seem to hold a man's interest beyond a certain length of time. Always, after a good number of dates, my beaux drop out of sight.

They seem to get bored with me and yet I have done all I can to prevent it—not only because I want to please men; but also because I like to keep up with things.

I am private secretary to a well known highly respected businessman. I enjoy sports, dancing, music, art, reading, nice living. I keep up with the latest books and new magazines. I am active in organizations, some of which are for men and women; and one, a woman's group doing social work.

On dates I never ask to be taken to smart expensive places; my only requirements for a date being a decent man, amongst decent people in a decent place. But I've never had to make an issue of this—as the men I've dated have been high type; and not interested (I'm sure) in improper surroundings.

But I just don't understand what happens. The only conclusion I've been able to reach is that the man gets bored; but why?

E.M.

DEAR E.M.: Don't try to "hold" a man's interest. Be yourself, and let him feel free to take it or leave it. That is how to keep a man-woman relationship in balance, if there is any substance or any ballast to it—in terms of mutual attraction and congeniality.

There is an old saying that you can't make a silk purse of a sow's ear. Well, neither can you make something worthwhile, romantic and enduring of a chance acquaintanceship, leading to a few dates—if the qualities of significant affinity aren't in the cards.

As you suggest, you probably are trying too hard to please beaux—trying to make a hit in terms of what you think they'd like you to be; instead of letting your real self shine through, with nothing to sell.

You can do just so much on your own behalf, and the rest is in the hands of God. When you have assimilated that truth and have begun to live by it, you will be more at ease in the dating situation, inclined to let the story unfold naturally, whether it be lasting love or a passing fancy.

Men respond to that open minded attitude in women; and shy away from its opposite: namely, the undercover intent to steer the dating relationship, cleverly.

Joe Ferguson Eyes Big Patch Of Patronage

Ohio Treasurer-Elect To Hand Out Jobs to Over 100 Employes

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Democrat Joseph T. Ferguson shook a hat full of patronage out of the political plum tree in winning election as state treasurer.

Only six of some 120 full-time employes in that office, held for eight years by Republican Roger W. Tracy, have Civil Service job protection.

Ferguson hasn't decided yet how many will be replaced by his own appointees after he takes over next Jan. 12.

He indicated that a number might be retained in positions of trust to help him hold the state's multi-billion dollar purse strings.

Ferguson also will have control of nearly 500 sales tax agents who received more than a million dollars last year in commissions on stamps purchased by retailers.

Most of the agents are banks and associations but some are individuals. A number of agents handled sales tax stamps only to accommodate customers. But commissions for a few approximated $50,000 annually. Counties share in commissions to county treasurers who are agents by law.

Ferguson said job applications haven't been heavy and that he probably won't make up his mind on key appointments until late this year. He declined to elaborate or to comment on rumors.

Speculation focused on L. D. Creviston, deputy treasurer and recognized bond and fiscal expert with 38 years or service. "Louis" will be 65 next October and then could retire on full pension. He would like to stay at least that long. He has precedent on his side.

Creviston served under former Treasurer Clarence H. Knisley in 1937-39. Knisley, now a Workmen's Compensation consultant in Columbus, scotched reports he might be in line for a Ferguson appointment. The former secretary of the State Utilities Commission said he would prefer to succeed GOP Commissioner Ralph A. Winter whose term expires Feb. 1.

Former employes of Ferguson, during his 16-year span as state auditor, were mentioned for possible appointment. They include Walter O'Grady, now with the Ohio Turnpike Commission and Norman Beck, Hugh McTeague, Hugh Foster, Herb Sifferlin and O. P. VanSchoik, most of them retired.

An Ohio Supreme Court decision in the early '30s took jobs in the treasurer's office from under the Civil Service umbrella. The six exceptions are Charles Gilbert, chief accountant with some 37 years of service, and these accountants: William E. Bright, Frances K. Aber, Margaret L. Dunn, Nell Flautt, and Essie M. Ept. They have terms of service ranging from 26 to 40 years.

Ferguson staged a spectacular comeback in winning election to the first four-year term as treasurer. He lost his bid for a fifth four-year term as auditor in 1952 as an aftermath to his unsuccessful attempt to unseat the late U.S. Sen. Robert A. Taft in 1950.

"Little Joe" tried again for state auditor in 1956. Last year he made an unsuccessful try for Columbus city auditor. During the period since his 1952 defeat, he sold parking meters and operated a credit firm in Springfield. But he never quit politics.

The scrappy campaigner has a long record behind him. The Perry County native ran for auditor in 1928 after working in that office and for the State Industrial Commission. He was nominated for state treasurer in 1930, 1932 and 1934. In 1936, he won election as state auditor and served for 16 years.

Besides his unsuccessful bout with Taft while auditor, Ferguson ran for governor in 1942 and was Ohio's favorite son candidate at the Democratic National Convention in 1944.

As state treasurer, he will account for nearly two billion dollars received annually by the state from taxes, fees, interest and other income. He also will be custodian of more than a billion dollars worth of bonds in the State Retirement and Workmen's Compensation systems.

A new vault is under construction in the Statehouse to safeguard the rich horde and statute requires Ferguson to post bond of nearly 1½ million dollars in his new job.

Entire Police Force To Get Lie Tests

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio (AP)—The entire 44-man Steubenville police force will undergo lie detector tests to determine who is stealing money from the department, Mayor Michael J. Cody said Saturday.

Fred Owesney, city safety director, said there have been two separate thefts—one of $200 in cash posted as a bond, and one of $20 that was to be used for election expenses.

The Fraternal Order of Police lodge here has agreed to pay for the lie detector tests. Owesney and Police Chief Ross H. Cunningham said they were arranging the tests with the Ohio Bureau of Crime Identification and Investigation at London, Ohio.

Owesney said the money in both cases has been returned anonymously after pressure was put on the force. The $200 was taken Oct. 5 and an envelope with the $20 was taken Nov. 6.

Cunningham said a note accompanied the return of the $20. It said:

"This is the first time I've ever done anything like this and it will be the last time."

Mayor Cody commented today: "It certainly will be the last time when we find the man."

Pope John Near 77th Birthday

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John XXIII is 77 Tuesday. He may have to be reminded it's his birthday, Vatican aides say.

He has been too busy in his first month as pontiff to make any personal plans for the day.

His three brothers and one sister, last of a family of 12 children, will not be here. They, and hundreds of townsmen from his native village of Sotto il Monte and his province of Bergamo, are coming down by special train Dec. 6, instead, to give him a golden crown.

John XXIII was older, at the time of his election Oct. 28, than any other newly elected pope since Clement XII in 1730. Clement was 78 when he became pontiff.

But with an energy that belies his years, sturdy Pope John has held to a work schedule that allows only six hours sleep a night.

An interesting place to visit is Shakerstown, Ky., which was founded by the "Shakers" or, as they were first known, the United Society of Believers.

Few Realize Rapid Growth Of Catholic Church in U.S.

By TOM HENSHAW
AP Religion Writer

The appointment of two more American cardinals last week points up the phenomenal growth of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States in 80 years.

Few people realize the United States is the fourth largest nation in terms of Catholic population.

The church claims approximately 35 million communicants in the 49 states.

The figure is surpassed only by France, with 36 million; Italy, 48 million; and Brazil, 54 million.

Yet there were scarcely five million Catholics in the United States when the Most Rev. John McCloskey, archbishop of New York, was named the first American cardinal in 1875 by Pope Pius IX.

When Archbishops Richard J. Cushing of Boston and John F. O'Hara of Philadelphia don their red hats next month the United States will have four cardinals. Only Italy (29) and France (8) will have more.

Archbishops Cushing and O'Hara will be the 13th and 14th American cardinals. Twelve of them were born in the United States and two in Ireland — John Cardinal Farley of New York and John Cardinal Glennon of St. Louis.

Three of them served their church as cardinals for 30 years or more. James Cardinal Gibbons of Baltimore wore the red hat 35 years; William Cardinal O'Connell of Boston 33 years; and Dennis Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia 30 years.

Four New York archbishops have been cardinals, more than any other American archdiocese. In addition to McCloskey and Farley, they have been Patrick Cardinal Hayes and the current Francis Cardinal Spellman.

Other American cardinals have been George Cardinal Mundelein and Samuel Cardinal Stritch, both of Chicago; Edward Cardinal Mooney of Detroit; and James Cardinal McIntyre of Los Angeles.

The Most Rev. Amleto Cicognani is the sixth apostolic delegate to Washington to be named a cardinal. All five of his predecessors eventually wore the red hat.

The first bishop of Boston, the most Rev. Jean-Louis de Cheverus, who served from 1808 to 1823, later became a cardinal in 1836 when he was the archbishop of Bordeaux, France.

Italian-born Ignazio Persico, bishop of Savannah, Ga., from 1870 to 1873, also became a cardinal after leaving these shores. He was stationed in the Vatican when he was named.

Court Decision Spotlights Bigness of Big Business

NEW YORK (AP) — A court decision barring a merger of two steel giants jarred U. S. industry this week.

The ruling, which throws a roadblock before the planned 2½ billion-dollar union of Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet Tube Co., once again spotlighted the issue of bigness in U. S. business.

It also raised grave questions for scores of other companies seeking to beef up their competitive position via the merger route.

Still ringing in the ears of corporate executives at week's end was federal Judge Edward Weinfeld's pronouncement that the Bethlehem - Youngstown merger "offers an incipient threat of setting into motion a chain reaction of further mergers" that would leave the nation's steel-making industry in the hands of three powerful groups.

The jurist envisioned a "triopoly" — as he termed it — in the industry, a "big three" that would consist of United States Steel Corp., the Bethlehem-Youngstown combine and a third giant — as yet unplanned — that would embrace all the other steel producers.

Outside the steel industry, the Weinfeld decision held serious implications for some 27 other mergers whose legality is being challenged in the courts. Expectations were that the Bethlehem case would be fought all the way to the United States Supreme Court, with industry watching tensely from the sidelines.

Elsewhere on the business front, plus signs outnumbered minus marks by a sizable margin this week.

The auto industry, rolling out new 1959 cars at the fastest clip so far this year, braced for a year-end production spurt that promised generous helpings of overtime pay for thousands of factory workers.

Texas authorities boosted the state's allowable oil production for December. Dun & Bradstreet, reporting on a poll of executives, said businessmen are more hopeful of a sales upturn than at any time in the past three years. Textile manufacturers gleefully reported a buying surge of near-record proportions in the cotton gray cloth market.

The hart-hit appliance industry showed signs of comeback. Electrical merchandising magazine, after a check with major distributors, reported retail sales of refrigerators in September up 5 per cent from a year ago, freezers up 17 per cent, electric ranges up 11 per cent, electric water heaters up 5 per cent and washers up 1 per cent. Clothes dryers showed a gain of 4 per cent, dishwashers, 19 per cent, room air conditioners 39 per cent and TV sets 3 per cent.

The big autumn rise in steel production may be losing some of its zip. Industry sources say steel order volume has leveled off. The mills, however, look for definite improvement in January.

The commerce department said national output of all goods and services in the third quarter set a yearly pace of 439 billion dollars.

Business Crisis

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Larry Robertson, already a young business man delivering 60 papers, faced a business crisis when someone stole his bicycle. He borrowed a bike and started saving his money to buy another. Executives at an oil company's division office on his route stepped into the crisis and gave him a bike. Larry promptly used his savings to buy a lock.

Non-Political

VERNON, Conn. (AP) — The "smoke-filled room" was outlawed in this town more than 100 years ago.

Town records reveal this resolution passed on Dec. 6, 1830:

"That the selectmen (town councilmen) procure as much stove pipe and put up same in the conference room as they may think necessary to prevent smoke in the room."

TV Puppets Popular Again

Several Big Shows Use Miniature Folk

NEW YORK (AP)—Puppets, so popular in the early years of television, are much in evidence on the home screen this season.

Next Sunday, when "Art Carney Meets Peter and the Wolf" in an hour special on ABC-TV (5 p.m., EST), the Baird puppets will make up the complete cast except for Carney. Perry Como has been employing Kukla, Fran and Ollie on his NBC-TV program. Pat Boone is presenting Shari Lewis and her puppets on his ABC-TV show.

Miss Lewis, who conducts a popular morning local program on NBC-TV featuring a variety of puppet characters, was saying the other day that "Puppets don't eat much" She meant, of course, that they offer a good show for a relatively small budget.

An interesting puppet, she explained, "is something unlikely existing in a human way." Furthermore, she theorizes that we're living in an age beguiled by the miniature. Smaller cars and smaller dogs, for example, are becoming increasingly popular. So isn't it possible that puppets, those miniature humans, are in a trend of popular interest?

Miss Lewis pointed out another interesting thing about a puppet: He (or she) can get away with saying and doing things on television that a human cannot. It's banal, for instance, when a man swoons upon being introduced to a pretty girl, but a puppet can swoon and nearly everybody is amused.

In her puppet shows Miss Lewis says she never strives for gags, "but if it's true humor we do it. There's never any pie or seltzer in the face. I try to bring vigor but not violence to a show. The conflicts are of emotion rather than physical."

Rainmakers

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (AP) — This Southwestern New Mexico town doesn't need to hire professional rainmakers, the Lions Club of the community takes care of the problem adequately.

An annual Cotton Carnival which the club holds to raise funds has been rained out the past three years. Even a change of dates hasn't helped.

Oddly enough the dates selected usually come during cotton picking season and the wet weather at this time of the year doesn't make the cotton farmer very happy.

Area School News

KINGSTON

The Kingston unit of the Adena Chapter, National Honor Society, is already making plans for the year's activities. The Ross County Council will meet in Chillicothe on Tuesday and the Kingston unit held its first meeting Wednesday evening.

Membership in the Honor Society is based on scholarship, service, character and leadership. Only a limited number of juniors and seniors are elected to membership each year. It is a distinct honor to become a member of the National Honor Society.

The Kingston unit, organized only recently, already has seven graduate members and three active members. Graduate members are: Kaye Williams, Lillian Parsons, Sandra Hohenstein, Maris Jende, Sue Hill, Ruth Ann Delong Jones and Connie Lauerman Shaw.

The active members (those still in school) are Janet Delong, Marilyn Davis and Rita Harper. These girls, with their advisor, Miss Mildred Wertman, are planning a Tapping Service to be given in February before the entire Kingston High School and all interested school patrons.

• • •

THE SENIOR girls have completed a unit on money management. Gene Dresbach gave a very informative talk on insurance for the closing lesson. The group felt his talk was excellent and so applicable to present day family protection and retirement.

The home economics department has two lovely aqua and gray breakfast sets. They add much to the attractiveness of the kitchen. The girls plan to make new curtains for the sick room as their next project.

School was dismissed at 2 p. m. on Tuesday to enable teachers to attend the Teacher's Conference on Education Testing at Paint Valley High School.

Vocational Guidance Day will be December 4 under the sponsorship of the "Y". All juniors interested must have filled in the proper papers and returned by Wednesday to the school office.

School will be dismissed Wednesday (at the usual dismissal time) for the Thanksgiving holiday and will resume December 1.

Don't miss the band show at the half-time of the varsity game when the Redskins meet the Pickaway team in our own gym, tonight.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A STICKY MOMENT in international relations popped up when the English ambassador was escorted through some secret Navy installations in Annapolis. He was out alone for a pre-breakfast stroll one crisp morning when he was suddenly halted by a midshipman on sentry duty.

"Restricted area, sir. You'll have to turn back," said the sentry. "But I'm the British Ambassador," spluttered the visitor. "They've let me see everything up to now. Just what's going on here?"

"Sir," snapped the middy, "it's secret practice for the Army football game."

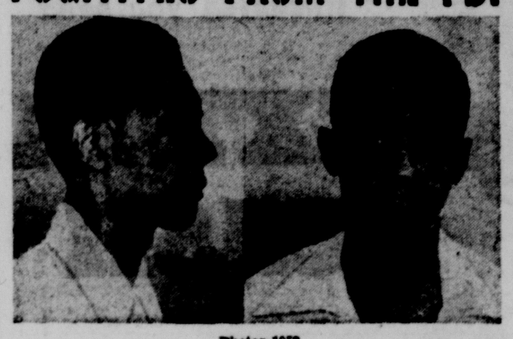
FUGITIVES FROM THE FBI



Photos 1958

DONALD PARKER

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

DONALD PARKER is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for the crime of murder. On July 25, 1934, Parker was sentenced by the Prince Georges County, Md., Criminal Court to hang for the first degree murder of a filling station proprietor during the course of an armed robbery. This sentence was commuted on Jan. 3, 1935, to life imprisonment in the Maryland Penitentiary.

On Dec. 23, 1936, Parker was sentenced a second time to life imprisonment in the Montgomery County, Maryland, Circuit Court for the alleged first-degree killing of a Germantown, Md., merchandise store operator. This murder occurred some five years prior to the time that Parker was convicted a first time.

Parker was paroled on Sept. 25, 1953, but he violated this parole when he disappeared on Jan. 29, 1957. A complaint was filed before a U. S Commissioner at Baltimore, Md., on June 10, 1957, charging Parker with violation of the Unlawful Flight to Avoid Confinement Statute in that he fled the State of Maryland to avoid confinement after conviction for murder.

The fugitive, whose aliases include Donald Berkeley, George Evans, Donald Littlejohn, Donald Webb, Percival Willis, etc., has worked as auto laundry helper, hospital attendant, laborer, porter and tailor. Court Decision Spotlights Bigness of Big Business

NEW YORK (AP) — A court decision barring a merger of two steel giants jarred U. S. industry this week.

The ruling, which throws a roadblock before the planned 2½ billion-dollar union of Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet Tube Co., once again spotlighted the issue of bigness in U. S. business.

It also raised grave questions for scores of other companies seeking to beef up their competitive position via the merger route.

Still ringing in the ears of corporate executives at week's end was federal Judge Edward Weinfeld's pronouncement that the Bethlehem - Youngstown merger "offers an incipient threat of setting into motion a chain reaction of further mergers" that would leave the nation's steel-making industry in the hands of three powerful groups.

The jurist envisioned a "triopoly" — as he termed it — in the industry, a "big three" that would consist of United States Steel Corp., the Bethlehem-Youngstown combine and a third giant — as yet unplanned — that would embrace all the other steel producers.

Outside the steel industry, the Weinfeld decision held serious implications for some 27 other mergers whose legality is being challenged in the courts. Expectations were that the Bethlehem case would be fought all the way to the United States Supreme Court, with industry watching tensely from the sidelines.

Elsewhere on the business front, plus signs outnumbered minus marks by a sizable margin this week.

The auto industry, rolling out new 1959 cars at the fastest clip so far this year, braced for a year-end production spurt that promised generous helpings of overtime pay for thousands of factory workers.

Texas authorities boosted the state's allowable oil production for December. Dun & Bradstreet, reporting on a poll of executives, said businessmen are more hopeful of a sales upturn than at any time in the past three years. Textile manufacturers gleefully reported a buying surge of near-record proportions in the cotton gray cloth market.

The hart-hit appliance industry showed signs of comeback. Electrical merchandising magazine, after a check with major distributors, reported retail sales of refrigerators in September up 5 per cent from a year ago, freezers up 17 per cent, electric ranges up 11 per cent, electric water heaters up 5 per cent and washers up 1 per cent. Clothes dryers showed a gain of 4 per cent, dishwashers, 19 per cent, room air conditioners 39 per cent and TV sets 3 per cent.

The big autumn rise in steel production may be losing some of its zip. Industry sources say steel order volume has leveled off. The mills, however, look for definite improvement in January.

The commerce department said national output of all goods and services in the third quarter set a yearly pace of 439 billion dollars.

Business Crisis

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Larry Robertson, already a young business man delivering 60 papers, faced a business crisis when someone stole his bicycle. He borrowed a bike and started saving his money to buy another. Executives at an oil company's division office on his route stepped into the crisis and gave him a bike. Larry promptly used his savings to buy a lock.

Non-Political

VERNON, Conn. (AP) — The "smoke-filled room" was outlawed in this town more than 100 years ago.

Town records reveal this resolution passed on Dec. 6, 1830:

"That the selectmen (town councilmen) procure as much stove pipe and put up same in the conference room as they may think necessary to prevent smoke in the room."

TV Puppets Popular Again

Several Big Shows Use Miniature Folk

NEW YORK (AP)—Puppets, so popular in the early years of television, are much in evidence on the home screen this season.

Next Sunday, when "Art Carney Meets Peter and the Wolf" in an hour special on ABC-TV (5 p.m., EST), the Baird puppets will make up the complete cast except for Carney. Perry Como has been employing Kukla, Fran and Ollie on his NBC-TV program. Pat Boone is presenting Shari Lewis and her puppets on his ABC-TV show.

Miss Lewis, who conducts a popular morning local program on NBC-TV featuring a variety of puppet characters, was saying the other day that "Puppets don't eat much" She meant, of course, that they offer a good show for a relatively small budget.

An interesting puppet, she explained, "is something unlikely existing in a human way." Furthermore, she theorizes that we're living in an age beguiled by the miniature. Smaller cars and smaller dogs, for example, are becoming increasingly popular. So isn't it possible that puppets, those miniature humans, are in a trend of popular interest?

Miss Lewis pointed out another interesting thing about a puppet: He (or she) can get away with saying and doing things on television that a human cannot. It's banal, for instance, when a man swoons upon being introduced to a pretty girl, but a puppet can swoon and nearly everybody is amused.

In her puppet shows Miss Lewis says she never strives for gags, "but if it's true humor we do it. There's never any pie or seltzer in the face. I try to bring vigor but not violence to a show. The conflicts are of emotion rather than physical."

Rainmakers

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (AP) — This Southwestern New Mexico town doesn't need to hire professional rainmakers, the Lions Club of the community takes care of the problem adequately.

An annual Cotton Carnival which the club holds to raise funds has been rained out the past three years. Even a change of dates hasn't helped.

Oddly enough the dates selected usually come during cotton picking season and the wet weather at this time of the year doesn't make the cotton farmer very happy.

Area School News

KINGSTON

The Kingston unit of the Adena Chapter, National Honor Society, is already making plans for the year's activities. The Ross County Council will meet in Chillicothe on Tuesday and the Kingston unit held its first meeting Wednesday evening.

Membership in the Honor Society is based on scholarship, service, character and leadership. Only a limited number of juniors and seniors are elected to membership each year. It is a distinct honor to become a member of the National Honor Society.

The Kingston unit, organized only recently, already has seven graduate members and three active members. Graduate members are: Kaye Williams, Lillian Parsons, Sandra Hohenstein, Maris Jende, Sue Hill, Ruth Ann Delong Jones and Connie Lauerman Shaw.

The active members (those still in school) are Janet Delong, Marilyn Davis and Rita Harper. These girls, with their advisor, Miss Mildred Wertman, are planning a Tapping Service to be given in February before the entire Kingston High School and all interested school patrons.

* * *

THE SENIOR girls have completed a unit on money management. Gene Dresbach gave a very informative talk on insurance for the closing lesson. The group felt his talk was excellent and so applicable to present day family protection and retirement.

The home economics department has two lovely aqua and gray breakfast sets. They add much to the attractiveness of the kitchen. The girls plan to make new curtains for the sick room as their next project.

School was dismissed at 2 p. m. on Tuesday to enable teachers to attend the Teacher's Conference on Education Testing at Paint Valley High School.

Vocational Guidance Day will be December 4 under the sponsorship of the "Y". All juniors interested must have filled in the proper papers and returned by Wednesday to the school office.

School will be dismissed Wednesday (at the usual dismissal time) for the Thanksgiving holiday and will resume December 1.

Don't miss the band show at the half-time of the varsity game when the Redskins meet the Pickaway team in our own gym, tonight.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A STICKY MOMENT in international relations popped up when the English ambassador was escorted through some secret Navy installations in Annapolis. He was out alone for a pre-breakfast stroll one crisp morning when he was suddenly halted by a midshipman on sentry duty.

"Restricted area, sir. You'll have to turn back," said the sentry. "But I'm the British Ambassador," spluttered the visitor. "They've let me see everything up to now. Just what's going on here?"

"Sir," snapped the middy, "it's secret practice for the Army football game."

DONALD PARKER

(In co-operation with J. Edgar Hoover, FBI Director, this newspaper is running a series of descriptive articles on criminals wanted by the FBI.)

DONALD PARKER is being sought by the FBI for unlawful flight to avoid confinement for the crime of murder. On July 25, 1934, Parker was sentenced by the Prince Georges County, Md., Criminal Court to hang for the first degree murder of a filling station proprietor during the course of an armed robbery. This sentence was commuted on Jan. 3, 1935, to life imprisonment in the Maryland Penitentiary.

On Dec. 23, 1936, Parker was sentenced a second time to life imprisonment in the Montgomery County, Maryland, Circuit Court for the alleged first-degree killing of a Germantown, Md., merchandise store operator. This murder occurred some five years prior to the time that Parker was convicted a first time.

Parker was paroled on Sept. 25, 1953, but he violated this parole when he disappeared on Jan. 29, 1957. A complaint was filed before a U. S Commissioner at Baltimore, Md., on June 10, 1957, charging Parker with violation of the Unlawful Flight to Avoid Confinement Statute in that he fled the State of Maryland to avoid confinement after conviction for murder.

The fugitive, whose aliases include Donald Berkeley, George Evans, Donald Littlejohn, Donald Webb, Percival Willis, etc., has worked as auto laundry helper, hospital attendant, laborer, porter and tailor. U.S. Business Giveaways Hit $500 Million

600 Firms To Tally Value Returned for Lush Sales Promotion

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—This contest loving nation is spending some 500 million dollars in 1958 staging the giveaway form of sales promotion.

Winners will split prizes valued at 40 million dollars. More than 600 firms will tally up the results to see just how much sales have been boosted.

The number of contests this year is estimated at 10 per cent more than last year. Part of the gain is credited to the step up in sales competition because of the receding recession. Also, cash prizes have more lure in poor times than in good.

But part of the increase is believed due to the fact that consumers like contests and expect them. And they especially like contests if the prize is unusual or beyond their means.

Chief among reasons for launching a contest are: 1. sales can be increased by asking contestants to turn in box tops, labels or wrappers; 2. if the prize has glamor and excites consumers the manufacturer can get dealers or stores to put up mass displays of the product.

Display is becoming more important in an age of supermarkets and self-service devices. Getting goods displayed is a competitive field all in itself, quite aside from product competition.

Contests are divided among those appealing to consumers and those aimed at spurring activities of salesmen or dealers.

Some profit only the winners who may be limited to a few contestants — like the perennial Miss Rhinegold voting bees — without offering anything to those who do the voting.

Others appeal to thousands of contestants aiming at many prizes like a reported 10 million who merely sent in their names to Lever Bros. Sweepstakes to be drawn out of a hat for cash prizes.

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A man being chased by police after he abandoned a stolen car tripped over a coil of rope on a dock and went into the water of the Elizabeth river. Police enlisted the help of the Coast Guard, Shore Patrol and Fire Department. Search by land and sea failed to disclose the fugitive.

He was arrested the next day when a taxi driver reported a dripping wet man in the bus station. He had clung to the underside of the dock all night.

Whisky Cars

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—What does a whisky-running car look like? State Alcoholic Beverage Control agents say it usually is six or seven years old, has a powerful engine and extra springs to handle heavy loads. Reason: Bootleggers have become increasingly wary of having newer and more valuable cars confiscated.

Winners will split prizes valued at 40 million dollars. More than 600 firms will tally up the results to see just how much sales have been boosted.

The number of contests this year is estimated at 10 per cent more than last year. Part of the gain is credited to the step up in sales competition because of the receding recession. Also, cash prizes have more lure in poor times than in good.

But part of the increase is believed due to the fact that consumers like contests and expect them. And they especially like contests if the prize is unusual or beyond their means.

Chief among reasons for launching a contest are: 1. sales can be increased by asking contestants to turn in box tops, labels or wrappers; 2. if the prize has glamor and excites consumers the manufacturer can get dealers or stores to put up mass displays of the product.

Display is becoming more important in an age of supermarkets and self-service devices. Getting goods displayed is a competitive field all in itself, quite aside from product competition.

Contests are divided among those appealing to consumers and those aimed at spurring activities of salesmen or dealers.

Some profit only the winners who may be limited to a few contestants — like the perennial Miss Rhinegold voting bees — without offering anything to those who do the voting.

Others appeal to thousands of contestants aiming at many prizes like a reported 10 million who merely sent in their names to Lever Bros. Sweepstakes to be drawn out of a hat for cash prizes.

Wet Wait

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—A man being chased by police after he abandoned a stolen car tripped over a coil of rope on a dock and went into the water of the Elizabeth river. Police enlisted the help of the Coast Guard, Shore Patrol and Fire Department. Search by land and sea failed to disclose the fugitive.

He was arrested the next day when a taxi driver reported a dripping wet man in the bus station. He had clung to the underside of the dock all night.

Whisky Cars

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—What does a whisky-running car look like? State Alcoholic Beverage Control agents say it usually is six or seven years old, has a powerful engine and extra springs to handle heavy loads. Reason: Bootleggers have become increasingly wary of having newer and more valuable cars confiscated.

Johnny Unitas Passes Colts to Win Over Rams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Johnny Unitas, a Colt with a .45 for a passing arm, is healthy again.

He proved it Sunday, shooting down the title bid of the Los Angeles Rams and passing Baltimore to a 34-7 victory. It was the Colts' eighth triumph in nine National Football League games. Baltimore now leads the Western Conference by two games with only three to play.

And Bobby Mitchell, Paul Brown's young speedster, is zooming toward acclaim as pro football's Rookie of the Year.

He looked it Sunday, shaking loose for a 98-yard touchdown run on the opening kickoff, then coming back in the same period with a 69-yard score on a punt return as the Cleveland Browns whipped the Philadelphia Eagles 28-14. Cleveland, with a 7-2 record, leads the Eastern Conference by one game with three remaining.

The New York Giants kept a game behind Cleveland with a 30-0 victory over the Washington Redskins, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, another game to the rear, hung on to the Giants' tail with a 27-20 triumph over the Chicago Cardinals.

In the West, the Chicago Bears took over sole possession of second place by beating the Detroit Lions 20-7 while Los Angeles faltered. The Lions' defeat eliminated the defending world champions from title consideration. The San Francisco 49ers moved past them into fourth place with a 33-12 victory over the last-place Green Bay Packers.

Unitas, who suffered two cracked ribs in the Green Bay game three weeks ago, lit that spark the first time he passed. Dodging tackles behind scrimmage at his own 42, he hit speedy receiver Lennie Moore on the Ram 18 and the ex-Penn State halfback kept going for the score.

The play gave Unitas 22 straight NFL games in which he has passed for at least one TD. The record is 23.

It was Unitas' 13th scoring pass of the season, and he later made it 14 by hitting Jim Mutcheller with a 12-yard TD toss in the Colts' 21-point fourth period. In that same period, Unitas scored on a one-yard plunge. He passed for 218 yards over-all, connecting on 14 of 20.

Mitchell, a dash man who runs from re to there in practically nothing flat, caught the opening kickoff on his two-yard line. about the next time anyone saw him, especially the Eagles, he was in the end zone.

A dozen minutes later Mitchell took a punt on his own 31, and in a side-stepping, tip-toeing, stop-and-go performance again raced through the Philadelphians for 69 yards and a score.

That put the Browns out front 14-0, and it was just incidental and anticlimactic that the two teams played even the rest of the way with Cleveland claiming its seventh win against two losses by 28-14 to stay atop the National Football League's Eastern Division. Philadelphia is 2-6-1, tied for last.

With Norm Van Brocklin hitting on all cylinders through the air, completing 18 of 29 for 210 yards, the Eagles matched the two late Brown scores. Philadelphia had the better of the ground-gaining statistics, 325 to 278 with 20 first downs to Cleveland's 15.

Jimmy Brown, Cleveland fullback who holds the league rushing record, was held to 66 yards in 20 tries—his least of the campaign—and the Brown's ground game was held to 135 yards.

The second quarter was dull, compared to Mitchell's first period pyrotechnics, but each team staged a long scoring march. The Eagles, with Van Brocklin throwing strikes, went 81 yards in 15 plays to send Billy Barnes crashing over from the two. The Browns came right back, moving 79 yards in 17 plays with Lew Carpenter climaxing the surge with a one-foot six-point plunge.

The next two came on passes. Ban Brocklin hit Tom McDonald in the end zone with a third-period 31-yard toss, the latter out-running Cleveland's fleet Bobby Freeman to snatch the ball. The 70-yard drive ate up 17 plays, and pulled the ever-threatening Eagles up to a 21-14 deficit.

But the Browns, with Milt Plum at the throttle, (he completed 8 of 11 passes for 143 yards), came right back in the fourth to put the game on ice. They marched 80 yards in seven plays. On the last three Plum hit Darrell Brewster with a 17-yard pass, ran for 12 on a "keeper" and then tossed 34 yards to Ray Renfro who gathered the ball in on a dead run and eased into the end zone unmolested.

Plum has now completed 81 of 147 for 1,149 yards and nine scores.

Bobby Walston, who booted both Eagle conversions, missed field goal tries from the 48 and 41-yard lines. Lou Groza placekicked all four Cleveland extra points.

Wednesday's card calls for Atlanta at Darby, Scioto at Pickaway, Walnut at Saltcreek, Clarksburg at Williamsport, Stoutsville at Centralia, Murray City at Laurelville and Monroe at Jackson.

Pete Cooper Wins West Palm Beach Tourney, $2,000

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Pete Cooper added $2,000 to his bankroll today with a sudden death playoff victory in the $15,000 West Palm Beach Open Golf Tournament.

Cooper, 43-year-old pro from Lakeland, Fla., played steady, sub-par golf on the final round Sunday to finish with a 70 and 269, tying Wesley Ellis Jr. of Aldecress, N.J.

Then the bespectacled Cooper sank a seven-foot putt for a birdie on the first extra hole while Ellis missed a 14-footer and had a par 5. Ellis previously had a 73.

Their 269 for 72 holes was 19 strokes under par for the West Palm Beach Country Club Course.

Ellis' second place finish was worth $1,500 while Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., finished with 68 to tie Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., at 273 and pick up $1,100.

Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., had 275 to win $900.

Darby Hands Amanda Aces 70-51 Defeat

Pickaway County defending league champions and favorites of the 1958-59 season, Darby, opened its basketball year Saturday night by walloping Amanda, 70-51 on the Derby court.

The Trojans avenged last year's upset at the hands of Amanda. The Aces kept pace with the Trojans for the first half, but Darby poured on the coals in the second half to win going away.

Alvin Cox replaced the injured Gary Wardell and played a fine defensive game, plus garnering seven points. The Darby unit used a man-to-man defense and kept Amanda from scoring or even shooting from the inside.

Trojan John Drummond was on top of Ace Skip Young, forcing the Amanda junior to shoot from the outside where he tallied 16 points on jump shots, high for the Aces.

DARBY incorporated its renowned jump shot to excellent effect Saturday as the two Tommys, Walters and Liff, registered 20 and 18 points respectively from 15 to 20 feet out. Liff and Walters also scored several field goals after stealing the ball.

Drummond notched 15 points from around the bucket and Dave Musselman contributed 10 points. The Trojans shot 38 per cent from the field, scoring 31 of 81 attempts.

Darby was weak from the free throw line, making only eight of 17 for 47 per cent. Amanda's Gussett and Bill Brown accumulated 11 each for the Aces.

Darby's tall reserve team completed a successful evening for the Trojans with a 42-25 win over the Amanda Junior varsity. Hoop was high with 17 points.

Clarksburg Halts Monroe

Clarksburg, Ross County, handed Monroe its fourth consecutive defeat Friday night on the Clarksburg court.

The Indians trailed throughout as Clarksburg took an 18-9 first quarter lead and increase its margin the remainder of the game. Clarksburg threw a tight zone defense at the Indians, preventing them from moving under the bucket.

Monroe was forced to the outside and couldn't hit. The taller Clarksburg unit led 35-20 at halftime and 48-24 at the third quarter mark. Monroe outscored the Clarksburg second team in the last canto, 18-11.

Monroe's Larry Bigam was tops for his unit with 15 points. Reisinger garnered 16 from the corner on jump shots and teammate Ater, the tall Clarksburg pivot man, dumped in 14 from around the bucket.

Clarksburg edged the Monroe junior varsity 33-31 in the evening's first contest. The game was close all the way.

Army-Navy Trade Usual Compliments

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Army and Navy are showing a traditionally healthy respect for each other's football prowess as they prepare for their annual football battle at Philadelphia Saturday.

Steven Belichick, chief scout for Navy, calls the Cadets "the most explosive football team I've ever seen—much better and entirely different from the team we beat last year."

And Army's top scout, Dale Hall, said the Middies have a "tremendous" squad which could pose more of a threat to the Cadets than the one which won 14-0 last year.

"Their passing attack is stronger than it has been, and in (halfback) Joe Bellino they have a greater individual threat," Hall sums up. "As a sophomore he has made mistakes, but he has made fewer and fewer and is one of the finest runners in the country if not the finest."

Belichick counters that Army halfback Pete Dawkins "is the finest all-around back I've seen in college football."

He says Dawkins is a great team leader—a "take charge" guy who sets the pace for the Cadets—a tremendous runner, good passer, good blocker.

But the strength of the undefeated Cadets runs much deeper than individual players, the Navy backfield coach says.

"This team has impressed me more than any others because they do many things well and are so explosive," he says. "They can kill you either passing or running."

Eagles Did One Thing: They Bottled Up Brown

the Philadelphia Eagles are tied for last in the National Football League's Eastern Division, they've had some success containing Cleveland's explosive fullback, Jimmy Brown.

The Eagles limited Brown to 66 yards in 20 carries Sunday, his longest gain was nine yards.

Sunday's gains raised Brown's league-leading rushing yardage to 1,229. He to has three more games to add to his yardage record which supplants the 1,146 yards Steve Van Buran gained for Philadelphia in 1949.

At Least Dozen Teams To Wind Up Perfect Seasons

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The list of college football's unbeaten and untied teams is down to 14 but it will get no lower than 12.

Only Mississippi Southern and Arizona State of Flagstaff of the perfect record class have regular season games remaining.

Louisiana State is the only major school on the list, winding up a 10-0 slate with a 62-0 walloping of Tulane Saturday.

Arizona State has won 10 games while Mississippi Southern has brushed aside eight opponents.

Also unbeaten in 10 games were St. Benedict's, Northeastern Oklahoma, Gustavus Adolphus, Wheaton, Kearney and Chadron.

Rose Poly, California (Pa.), Rochester, Sewanee and Missouri Valley all finished unbeaten in eight games.

OHIO STATE SQUEAKS PAST MICHIGAN — With 40 seconds left to go in the game, Brad Myers (17) of Michigan fumbles on the Ohio State three-yard line and Jerry Fields of Ohio State recovers to save the game. The Wolverines, going through a drab season, gave the Buckeyes a real scare, but went down, 20-to-14 at Columbus, Ohio.

Ohio State Plans Honors Tonight for Football Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another Ohio State football season, filled with one surprise after another, was in the record books today.

The Buckeyes, who closed out the 1958 campaign on a triumphant note, will honor their grid heroes tonight at the annual campus appreciation dinner.

Coach Woody Hayes' stalwarts were breathing easier having escaped with a 20-14 victory Saturday over an inspired Michigan team that was determined to win for their retiring coach, Bennie Oosterbaan.

A last-play fumble by the Wolves inside Ohio's five-yard stripe saved the victory for the Buckeyes. Thus Ohio State, rated by pre-season pollsters as the best in the land, finished with a 6-1-2 record and third place in the Western Conference.

Still, the Buckeyes, after a mid-season sag, came on to whip Rose Bowl bound Iowa in their best effort of the year.

Summing up the season, Hayes declared:

"We disappointed a lot of people, but not ourselves.

"Other teams ranked highly at the start of the season slipped badly. We also could not quite make the grade—and I think I know why—but we didn't quit.

"For the kids and me it has been a great season. Our kids just stuck in there."

Slightly overshadowed by the emotional outcome of the game Saturday was a new Big Ten passing record set by a Cleveland boy. Bob Placek of the Wolves completed 24 of 35 passes to eclipse the old mark of 22 completions set by Illinois' Tommy O'Connell in 1952 and equalled by Iowa's Randy Duncan against the Bucks a week ago.

The 83,248 spectators who filled Ohio Stadium set a new attendance record for six home games with a total of 499,119, an average of 83,196. The old record of 494,575 was set in 1956.

At the appreciation dinner tonight, the Buckeyes will name the captain or captains they hope will lead them back to the top again next season.

Jim Houston, All-America end candidate from Massillon and Fullback Bob White of Covington, Ky., may reap the honors.

Two other Ohio college teams saw action Saturday, Dayton (2-8-0) completing a disappointing season by losing to Detroit, 27-7 and unbeaten Wittenberg (9-0-0) preserving its clean slate with a 51-0 win over Washington & Lee.

The Lutherans, due to forfeiture of a 26-6 victory by Baldwin-Wallace, wound up as the state's only unbeaten team, the slate scoring leader with 294 points and the defensive kingpin with only 47 allowed.

In interstate competition, Ohio colleges closed with 55 wins, 37 losses and five ties.

Only one game remains on the Ohio scene and that comes up Thanksgiving Day when Mid-American titlist Miami (6-2-0) clashes with Cincinnati (5-2-2).

Spain, Ireland Cop Top Honors in World Golf Test

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The dramatic victory of an ignored Spaniard and an under-rated Irish team in the Canada Cup finals was called further proof the U.S. and British Isles no longer rule the golf world.

Angel Miguel won top individual honors in a sudden death playoff with Harry Bradshaw of Ireland.

Behind Miguel and Bradshaw came Flory Van Donck of Belgium with a 287; Miguel Sala, Colombia, 288; Eric Brown, Scotland, and Frank Phillips, Australia, 289; Leopoldo Ruiz, Argentina, 292; Harold Henning, South Africa, O'Connor, and Chen Ching-Po, China, 293.

Spain was second in the team competition with 582, followed by South Africa 584 and Australia and Scotland 588.

STUDY PERIOD — Louisiana State's All-American halfback, Billy Cannon, catches up on his Spanish during a study session at Baton Rouge, La. Cannon has led the Tigers to an undefeated season this year.

'Easy Ed' Finds Coach Job Is Easy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Now they know why they call Ed Macauley of the St. Louis Hawks "Easy Ed."

He finds it easy winning as a coach in the National Basketball Assn.

Since taking over from Andy Phillip last week, Macauley has guided the Hawks to two victories in as many games. They defeated Minneapolis 114-109 Saturday night and Cincinnati 100-89 in Sunday's nationally-televised game.

The Hawks, however, have been unable to gain ground on Detroit, runner-up to St. Louis in the Western Division. The Pistons turned back Minneapolis 124-109 Sunday night after beating Cincinnati 103-86 Saturday.

In another Sunday night game, Jack George's three points in the final 49 seconds gave the Philadelphia Warriors a 110-107 win over the Syracuse Nationals.

Bob Pettit and Clyde Lovellette shared scoring honors for St. Louis Sunday with 24 points apiece.

Cincinnati now has won only two games in 11 starts.

George Yardley was the big man for Detroit Sunday night, scoring 34 points as the Pistons increased their second place margin over Minneapolis to two games. Rookie Elgin Baylor had 30 for the Lakers.

George scored 11 points in a final quarter rally for the Warriors. Red Kerr had 25 points for Syracuse.

In other Saturday night games, the New York Knickerbockers roared to their 10th victory in 11 starts — and eighth straight — by beating Syracuse 114-99, and Boston nipped Philadelphia, 105-100.

Tigers Await Opener with Athens Cagers

According to Coach Dick Snouffer, Circleville High School's 1958-59 basketball hopefuls have been working hard the last few days in preparation for Friday's opener at Athens.

Coach Snouffer will be starting his first season here as head cage mentor. He is a graduate of Capital University where he was a member of the basketball team.

The Tiger cagers will face a rebuilding job this year in view of the departure of several seniors from last season. Gone are such able performers as Bill Johnson, Jon Parcher and Mike Hosler.

However, the picture will be brightened by the return of veterans Don Rowland, Walt Arledge and Asa Elsea and a crop of promising members of last year's reserve team, including Bob Shadley, Larry Hannahs and Arch Ward.

* * *

THE Tigers' first home game is December 5, a South Central Ohio League test with Franklin Heights. The following night the locals go to Chillicothe for a date with the usually strong Cavaliers.

The next home test is December 12 when the Blue Lions of Washington C. H. come here.

Browns Also Do OK at Turnstiles Of Home Stadium

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Brown & Co. have been packing them in this year at Cleveland Stadium. The gate for the first five games has averaged 67,508 a game. The total of 337,541 surpasses any full season home attendance here since the Cleveland Browns entered the National Football League in 1950.

There's one game left on the home card, too—against Washington next Sunday.

Last year's 324,165 marked the first time since the old All-American Conference days that the Browns were able to draw more than 300,000 fans for their home schedule.

In 1946, the year the club was formed, the Browns's home gate was just 38 shy of 400,000, and in the following seasons it was 392,760.

But in the AAC the home schedule was seven games, compared with the six played in the NFL.

Ashville Tackles Rebuilding Job

The perennial Pickaway County Champions, Ashville, this year faces a tough job of rebuilding to be in contention for the county crown.

Ashville lost its entire varsity except Bobby Hoover, who this season should be one of the top players in central Ohio. Hoover, a 6-4 junior, was named to the All-County squad last year along with being placed on the All-Darby Valley League first team.

Hoover was Ashville's ace rebounder and leading scorer last year with 375 points in 22 ball games for a 17.1 average. He placed eighth in county scoring.

The determined and rugged Ashville pivot man ably assisted his Bronco teammates to a Pickaway County tournament title, after they had placed second during the league season, losing only to titlist Darby, earlier in the year.

* * *

THE BRONCOS finished the season with a 17-5 record, winning 13 in a row during the latter part of the year. Several promising boys will comprise the Ashville varsity this season, according to Coach Russ Gregg.

Among these are juniors Dale Fout, 6', Gary Gaines, 5-10, and Phil Roese, 5-10. Ashville reserves had a 9-7 record last season. Also starting for Ashville will be freshman, Dick Hollenback, standing 5-8, and a brilliant set short artist.

Pressing this front line attack are Tom Rathburn, 6-2 freshman, Jim Franks, 5-11 sophomore, Chuck McNeal, 5-6 junior and Jim Gregg, 5-7 sophomore. Frank Gloyd, junior, and Terry Roof, only senior on the squad, will also see action.

Ashville Friday opened against a strong Pleasantville unit, which went to the finals of the Class "A" State Tournament last year. The Broncos were defeated 69-54.

Hoover canned 28 points to start the season right, but Ashville will need to develop a scoring aggregation around the big boy, or opponents will bottle him up.

Although defeated, Gregg said his team showed potential and would be contenders by midseason. He stated that with experience his squad would be a good, solid unit, capable of competing with other top Class "A" teams.

* * *

THE ASHVILLE schedule is one of the toughest in the county, which will give themanopportunity to meet strong opposition in which to develop.

Last year the Broncos tallied 1,258 points in 18 contests for a 69.9 average per game. Ashville allowed its opponents to register 1,017 points for a 56.5 average.

Dark Vintage won four stakes races during the Chicago racing season. They were the Arlington Lassie, Pollyanna, Joliet and Miss Chicago Stakes.

Johnny Unitas Passes Colts to Win Over Rams

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Johnny Unitas, a Colt with a .45 for a passing arm, is healthy again.

He proved it Sunday, shooting down the title bid of the Los Angeles Rams and passing Baltimore to a 34-7 victory. It was the Colts' eighth triumph in nine National Football League games. Baltimore now leads the Western Conference by two games with only three to play.

And Bobby Mitchell, Paul Brown's young speedster, is zooming toward acclaim as pro football's Rookie of the Year.

He looked it Sunday, shaking loose for a 98-yard touchdown run on the opening kickoff, then coming back in the same period with a 69-yard score on a punt return as the Cleveland Browns whipped the Philadelphia Eagles 28-14. Cleveland, with a 7-2 record, leads the Eastern Conference by one game with three remaining.

The New York Giants kept a game behind Cleveland with a 30-0 victory over the Washington Redskins, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, another game to the rear, hung on to the Giants' tail with a 27-20 triumph over the Chicago Cardinals.

In the West, the Chicago Bears took over sole possession of second place by beating the Detroit Lions 20-7 while Los Angeles faltered. The Lions' defeat eliminated the defending world champions from title consideration. The San Francisco 49ers moved past them into fourth place with a 33-12 victory over the last-place Green Bay Packers.

Unitas, who suffered two cracked ribs in the Green Bay game three weeks ago, lit that spark the first time he passed. Dodging tackles behind scrimmage at his own 42, he hit speedy receiver Lennie Moore on the Ram 18 and the ex-Penn State halfback kept going for the score.

The play gave Unitas 22 straight NFL games in which he has passed for at least one TD. The record is 23.

It was Unitas' 13th scoring pass of the season, and he later made it 14 by hitting Jim Mutcheller with a 12-yard TD toss in the Colts' 21-point fourth period. In that same period, Unitas scored on a one-yard plunge. He passed for 218 yards over-all, connecting on 14 of 20.

Mitchell, a dash man who runs from re to there in practically nothing flat, caught the opening kickoff on his two-yard line, about the next time anyone saw him, especially the Eagles, he was in the end zone.

A dozen minutes later Mitchell took a punt on his own 31, and in a side-stepping, tip-toeing, stop-and-go performance again raced through the Philadelphians for 69 yards and a score.

That put the Browns out front 14-0, and it was just incidental and anticlimactic that the two teams played even the rest of the way with Cleveland claiming its seventh win against two losses by 28-14 to stay atop the National Football League's Eastern Division. Philadelphia is 2-6-1, tied for last.

With Norm Van Brocklin hitting on all cylinders through the air, completing 18 of 29 for 210 yards, the Eagles matched the two late Brown scores. Philadelphia had the better of the ground-gaining statistics, 325 to 278 with 20 first downs to Cleveland's 15.

Jimmy Brown, Cleveland fullback who holds the league rushing record, was held to 66 yards in 20 tries—his least of the campaign—and the Brown's ground game was held to 135 yards.

The second quarter was dull, compared to Mitchell's first period pyrotechnics, but each team staged a long scoring march. The Eagles, with Van Brocklin throwing strikes, went 81 yards in 15 plays to send Billy Barnes crashing over from the two. The Browns came right back, moving 79 yards in 17 plays with Lew Carpenter climaxing the surge with a one-foot six-point plunge.

The next two came on passes. Ban Brocklin hit Tom McDonald in the end zone with a third-period 31-yard toss, the latter out-running Clevelands fleet Bobby Freeman to snatch the ball. The 70-yard drive ate up 17 plays, and pulled the ever-threatening Eagles up to a 21-14 deficit.

But the Browns, with Milt Plum at the throttle, (he completed 8 of 11 passes for 143 yards), came right back in the fourth to put the game on ice. They marched 80 yards in seven plays. On the last three Plum hit Darrell Brewster with a 17-yard pass, ran for 12 on a "keeper" and then tossed 34 yards to Ray Renfro who gathered the ball in on a dead run and eased into the end zone unmolested.

Plum has now completed 81 of 147 for 1,149 yards and nine scores.

Bobby Walston, who booted both Eagle conversions, missed field goal tries from the 48 and 41-yard lines. Lou Groza placekicked all four Cleveland extra points.

Heavy Week Of Cage War On Schedule

A heavy playing card looms this week for Pickaway County and area basketball teams.

The action starts tomorrow with three games listed. Seven more tilts are slated Wednesday night, two Friday night and one Saturday night.

Wednesday night's heavy schedule is due to Thanksgiving on Thursday. No games are listed on this date.

Highlighting tomorrow's action will be Pickerington at Ashville, Liberty Union at Scioto and Bloomingburg at New Holland.

Wednesday's card calls for Atlanta at Darby, Scioto at Pickaway, Walnut at Saltcreek, Clarksburg at Williamsport, Stoutsville at Centralia, Murray City at Laurelville and Monroe at Jackson.

Two non-league games Friday lists Frankfort at Saltcreek and Unioto at Walnut. The Saturday night schedule lists Kingston at Williamsport.

Pete Cooper Wins West Palm Beach Tourney, $2,000

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Pete Cooper added $2,000 to his bankroll today with a sudden death playoff victory in the $15,000 West Palm Beach Open Golf Tournament.

Cooper, 43-year-old pro from Lakeland, Fla., played steady, sub-par golf on the final round Sunday to finish with a 70 and 269, tying Wesley Ellis Jr. of Aldecress, N.J.

Then the bespectacled Cooper sank a seven-foot putt for a birdie on the first extra hole while Ellis missed a 14-footer and had a par 5. Ellis previously had a 73.

Their 269 for 72 holes was 19 strokes under par for the West Palm Beach Country Club Course.

Ellis' second place finish was worth $1,500 while Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif., finished with 68 to tie Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., at 273 and pick up $1,100.

Tommy Jacobs of Whittier, Calif., had 275 to win $900.

Army-Navy Trade Usual Compliments

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Army and Navy are showing a traditionally healthy respect for each other's football prowess as they prepare for their annual football battle at Philadelphia Saturday.

Steven Belichick, chief scout for Navy, calls the Cadets "the most explosive football team I've ever seen—much better and entirely different from the team we beat last year."

And Army's top scout, Dale Hall, said the Middies have a "tremendous" squad which could pose more of a threat to the Cadets than the one which won 14-0 last year.

"Their passing attack is stronger than it has been, and in (halfback) Joe Bellino they have a greater individual threat," Hall sums up. "As a sophomore he has made mistakes, but he has made fewer and fewer and is one of the finest runners in the country if not the finest."

Belichick counters that Army halfback Pete Dawkins "is the finest all-around back I've seen in college football."

He says Dawkins is a great team leader—a "take charge" guy who sets the pace for the Cadets—a tremendous runner, good passer, good blocker.

But the strength of the undefeated Cadets runs much deeper than individual players, the Navy backfield coach says.

"This team has impressed me more than any others because they do many things well and are so explosive," he says. "They can kill you either passing or running."

Darby Hands Amanda Aces 70-51 Defeat

Pickaway County defending league champions and favorites of the 1958-59 season, Darby, opened its basketball year Saturday night by walloping Amanda, 70-51 on the Derby court.

The Trojans avenged last year's upset at the hands of Amanda. The Aces kept pace with the Trojans for the first half, but Darby poured on the coals in the second half to win going away.

Alvin Cox replaced the injured Gary Wardell and played a fine defensive game, plus garnering seven points. The Darby unit used a man-to-man defense and kept Amanda from scoring or even shooting from the inside.

Trojan John Drummond was on top of Ace Skip Young, forcing the Amanda junior to shoot from the outside where he tallied 16 points on jump shots, high for the Aces.

* * *

DARBY incorporated its renowned jump shot to excellent effect Saturday as the two Tommys, Walters and Liff, registered 20 and 18 points respectively from 15 to 20 feet out. Liff and Walters also scored several field goals after stealing the ball.

Drummond notched 15 points from around the bucket and Dave Musselman contributed 10 points. The Trojans shot 38 per cent from the field, scoring 31 of 81 attempts.

Darby was weak from the free throw line, making only eight of 17 for 47 per cent. Amanda's Gussett and Bill Brown accumulated 11 each for the Aces.

Darby's tall reserve team completed a successful evening for the Trojans with a 42-25 win over the Amanda Junior varsity. Hoop was high with 17 points.

Clarksburg Halts Monroe

Clarksburg, Ross County, handed Monroe its fourth consecutive defeat Friday night on the Clarksburg court.

The Indians trailed throughout as Clarksburg took an 18-9 first quarter lead and increase its margin the remainder of the game. Clarksburg threw a tight zone defense at the Indians, preventing them from moving under the bucket.

Monroe was forced to the outside and couldn't hit. The taller Clarksburg unit led 35-20 at halftime and 48-24 at the third quarter mark. Monroe outscored the Clarksburg second team in the last canto, 18-11.

Monroe's Larry Bigam was tops for his unit with 15 points. Reisinger garnered 16 from the corner on jump shots and teammate Ater, the tall Clarksburg pivot man, dumped in 14 from around the bucket.

Clarksburg edged the Monroe junior varsity 33-31 in the evening's first contest. The game was close all the way.

Eagles Did One Thing: They Bottled Up Brown

the Philadelphia Eagles are tied for last in the National Football League's Eastern Division, they've had some success containing Cleveland's explosive fullback, Jimmy Brown.

The Eagles limited Brown to 66 yards in 20 carries Sunday, his longest gain was nine yards.

Sunday's gains raised Brown's league-leading rushing yardage to 1,229. He to has three more games to add to his yardage record which supplants the 1,146 yards Steve Van Buran gained for Philadelphia in 1949.

At Least Dozen Teams To Wind Up Perfect Seasons

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The list of college football's unbeaten and untied teams is down to 14 but it will get no lower than 12.

Only Mississippi Southern and Arizona State of Flagstaff of the perfect record class have regular season games remaining.

Louisiana State is the only major school on the list, winding up a 10-0 slate with a 62-0 walloping of Tulane Saturday.

Arizona State has won 10 games while Mississippi Southern has brushed aside eight opponents.

Also unbeaten in 10 games were St. Benedict's, Northeastern Oklahoma, Gustavus Adolphus, Wheaton, Kearney and Chadron.

Rose Poly, California (Pa.), Rochester, Sewanee and Missouri Valley all finished unbeaten in eight games.

OHIO STATE SQUEAKS PAST MICHIGAN — With 40 seconds left to go in the game, Brad Myers (17) of Michigan fumbles on the Ohio State three-yard line and Jerry Fields of Ohio State recovers to save the game. The Wolverines, going through a drab season, gave the Buckeyes a real scare, but went down, 20-to-14 at Columbus, Ohio.

Ohio State Plans Honors Tonight for Football Team

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Another Ohio State football season, filled with one surprise after another, was in the record books today.

The Buckeyes, who closed out the 1958 campaign on a triumphant note, will honor their grid heroes tonight at the annual campus appreciation dinner.

Coach Woody Hayes' stalwarts were breathing easier having escaped with a 20-14 victory Saturday over an inspired Michigan team that was determined to win for their retiring coach, Bennie Oosterbaan.

A last-play fumble by the Wolves inside Ohio's five-yard stripe saved the victory for the Buckeyes. Thus Ohio State, rated by pre-season pollsters as the best in the land, finished with a 6-1-2 record and third place in the Western Conference.

Still, the Buckeyes, after a mid-season sag, came on to whip Rose Bowl bound Iowa in their best effort of the year.

Summing up the season, Hayes declared:

"We disappointed a lot of people, but not ourselves.

"Other teams ranked highly at the start of the season slipped badly. We also could not quite make the grade—and I think I know why—but we didn't quit.

"For the kids and me it has been a great season. Our kids just stuck in there."

Slightly overshadowed by the emotional outcome of the game Saturday was a new Big Ten passing record set by a Cleveland boy. Bob Placek of the Wolves completed 24 of 35 passes to eclipse the old mark of 22 completions set by Illinois' Tommy O'Connell in 1952 and equalled by Iowa's Randy Duncan against the Bucks a week ago.

The 83,248 spectators who filled Ohio Stadium set a new attendance record for six home games with a total of 499,119, an average of 83,196. The old record of 494,575 was set in 1956.

At the appreciation dinner tonight, the Buckeyes will name the captain or captains they hope will lead them back to the top again next season.

Jim Houston, All-America end candidate from Massillon and Fullback Bob White of Covington, Ky., may reap the honors.

Two other Ohio college teams saw action Saturday, Dayton (2-8-0) completing a disappointing season by losing to Detroit, 27-7 and unbeaten Wittenberg (9-0-0) preserving its clean slate with a 51-0 win over Washington & Lee.

The Lutherans, due to forfeiture of a 26-6 victory by Baldwin-Wallace, wound up as the state's only unbeaten team, the slate scoring leader with 294 points and the defensive kingpin with only 47 allowed.

In interstate competition, Ohio colleges closed with 55 wins, 37 losses and five ties.

Only one game remains on the Ohio scene and that comes up Thanksgiving Day when Mid-American titlist Miami (6-2-0) clashes with Cincinnati (5-2-2).

Spain, Ireland Cop Top Honors in World Golf Test

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The dramatic victory of an ignored Spaniard and an under-rated Irish team in the Canada Cup finals was called further proof the U.S. and British Isles no longer rule the golf world.

Angel Miguel won top individual honors in a sudden death playoff with Harry Bradshaw of Ireland.

Behind Miguel and Bradshaw came Flory Van Donck of Belgium with a 287; Miguel Sala, Colombia, 288; Eric Brown, Scotland, and Frank Phillips, Australia, 289; Leopoldo Ruiz, Argentina, 292; Harold Henning, South Africa, O'Connor, and Chen Ching-Po, China, 293.

Spain was second in the team competition with 582, followed by South Africa 584 and Australia and Scotland 588.

STUDY PERIOD — Louisiana State's All-American halfback, Billy Cannon, catches up on his Spanish during a study session at Baton Rouge, La. Cannon has led the Tigers to an undefeated season this year.

Tigers Await Opener with Athens Cagers

According to Coach Dick Snouffer, Circleville High School's 1958-59 basketball hopefuls have been working hard the last few days in preparation for Friday's opener at Athens.

Coach Snouffer will be starting his first season here as head cage mentor. He is a graduate of Capital University where he was a member of the basketball team.

The Tiger cagers will face a rebuilding job this year in view of the departure of several seniors from last season. Gone are such able performers as Bill Johnson, Jon Parcher and Mike Hosler.

However, the picture will be brightened by the return of veterans Don Rowland, Walt Arledge and Asa Elsea and a crop of promising members of last year's reserve team, including Bob Shadley, Larry Hannahs and Arch Ward.

* * *

THE Tigers' first home game is December 5, a South Central Ohio League test with Franklin Heights. The following night the locals go to Chillicothe for a date with the usually strong Cavaliers.

The next home test is December 12 when the Blue Lions of Washington C. H. come here.

Browns Also Do OK at Turnstiles Of Home Stadium

CLEVELAND (AP)—Jim Brown & Co. have been packing them in this year at Cleveland Stadium. The gate for the first five games has averaged 67,508 a game. The total of 337,541 surpasses any full season home attendance here since the Cleveland Browns entered the National Football League in 1950.

There's one game left on the home card, too—against Washington next Sunday.

Last year's 324,165 marked the first time since the old All-American Conference days that the Browns were able to draw more than 300,000 fans for their home schedule.

In 1946, the year the club was formed, the Browns's home gate was just 38 shy of 400,000, and in the following seasons it was 392,760.

But in the AAC the home schedule was seven games, compared with the six played in the NFL.

'Easy Ed' Finds Coach Job Is Easy

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Now they know why they call Ed Macauley of the St. Louis Hawks "Easy Ed."

He finds it easy winning as a coach in the National Basketball Assn.

Since taking over from Andy Phillip last week, Macauley has guided the Hawks to two victories in as many games. They defeated Minneapolis 114-109 Saturday night and Cincinnati 100-89 in Sunday's nationally-televised game.

The Hawks, however, have been unable to gain ground on Detroit, runner-up to St. Louis in the Western Division. The Pistons turned back Minneapolis 124-109 Sunday night after beating Cincinnati 103-86 Saturday.

In another Sunday night game, Jack George's three points in the final 49 seconds gave the Philadelphia Warriors a 110-107 win over the Syracuse Nationals.

Bob Pettit and Clyde Lovellette shared scoring honors for St. Louis Sunday with 24 points apiece.

Cincinnati now has won only two games in 11 starts.

George Yardley was the big man for Detroit Sunday night, scoring 34 points as the Pistons increased their second place margin over Minneapolis to two games. Rookie Elgin Baylor had 30 for the Lakers.

George scored 11 points in a final quarter rally for the Warriors. Red Kerr had 25 points for Syracuse.

In other Saturday night games, the New York Knickerbockers roared to their 10th victory in 11 starts — and eighth straight — by beating Syracuse 114-99, and Boston nipped Philadelphia, 105-100.

Ashville Tackles Rebuilding Job

The perennial Pickaway County Champions, Ashville, this year faces a tough job of rebuilding to be in contention for the county crown.

Ashville lost its entire varsity except Bobby Hoover, who this season should be one of the top players in central Ohio. Hoover, a 6-4 junior, was named to the All-County squad last year along with being placed on the All-Darby Valley League first team.

Hoover was Ashville's ace rebounder and leading scorer last year with 375 points in 22 ball games for a 17.1 average. He placed eighth in county scoring.

The determined and rugged Ashville pivot man ably assisted his Bronco teammates to a Pickaway County tournament title, after they had placed second during the league season, losing only to titlist Darby, earlier in the year.

* * *

THE BRONCOS finished the season with a 17-5 record, winning 13 in a row during the latter part of the year. Several promising boys will comprise the Ashville varsity this season, according to Coach Russ Gregg.

Among these are juniors Dale Fout, 6', Gary Gaines, 5-10, and Phil Roese, 5-10. Ashville reserves had a 9-7 record last season. Also starting for Ashville will be freshman, Dick Hollenback, standing 5-8, and a brilliant set short artist.

Pressing this front line attack are Tom Rathburn, 6-2 freshman, Jim Franks, 5-11 sophomore, Chuck McNeal, 5-6 junior and Jim Gregg, 5-7 sophomore. Frank Gloyd, junior, and Terry Roof, only senior on the squad, will also see action.

Ashville Friday opened against a strong Pleasantville unit, which went to the finals of the Class "A" State Tournament last year. The Broncos were defeated 69-54.

Hoover canned 28 points to start the season right, but Ashville will need to develop a scoring aggregation around the big boy, or opponents will bottle him up.

Although defeated, Gregg said his team showed potential and would be contenders by midseason. He stated that with experience his squad would be a good, solid unit, capable of competing with other top Class "A" teams.

* * *

THE ASHVILLE schedule is one of the toughest in the county, which will give themanopportunity to meet strong opposition in which to develop.

Last year the Broncos tallied 1,258 points in 18 contests for a 69.9 average per game. Ashville allowed its opponents to register 1,017 points for a 56.5 average.

Dark Vintage won four stakes races during the Chicago racing season. They were the Arlington Lassie, Pollyanna, Joliet and Miss Chicago Stakes.

LSU, California Gain Top Bowl Invitations After Win Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Louisiana State and California, a couple of ragamuffin outfits last year that could win only half a dozen games between them, were high in college football's top society today preparing for important bowl assignments New Year's Day.

Last year, Louisiana State had a 5-5 record and finished seventh in the Southeastern Conference. This year, the Tigers have the only undefeated-untied record among the major teams of the country.

They'll be the hosts in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans by virtue of having won their conference title. It will be their first bowl appearance since 1950 when they were slaughtered by Oklahoma 35-0 in the Sugar Bowl.

LSU swept past 10 opponents and didn't stumble once. They wound up their first undefeated-untied season since 1908 Saturday by grinding out a 62-0 victory over Tulane.

Their Sugar Bowl opponent may not be known until next Saturday when the last sprinkling of games are played. Southern Methodist is being considered, but the Mustangs will have to beat Cotton Bowl-bound Texas Christian. Otherwise, Clemson, the Atlantic Coast Conference champion, probably will get the bid.

As for California, the Bears compiled a miserable 1-9 record in 1957. They were consigned to the scrap heap in this the final year of the Pacific Coast Conference as it now stands.

But, after losing to College of the Pacific and Michigan State, they suddenly caught on to the split-T which Elliott had installed last year. They lost only one more game and wrapped up the title with a breathless 16-15 triumph over Stanford.

California will meet Iowa, the Big Ten champion, in the Rose Bowl, and, just as in almost all its games through the fall, will be the underdog. Iowa closed its regular season Saturday, whipping Notre Dame 31-21.

So here is how the major bowls shape up at the moment:

Sugar Bowl — Louisiana State (10-0) vs. opponent to be chosen, probably Southern Methodist or Clemson.

Rose Bowl—California (7-3) vs. Iowa (7-1-1).

Orange Bowl — Oklahoma (8-1) vs. Syracuse (8-1).

Cotton Bowl — Texas Christian (8-1) vs. opponent to be chosen, probably Air Force Academy.

The Gator Bowl, which ranks practically even with the others, has a wide choice, but probably won't know until the Sugar and Cotton bowls are filled.

Syracuse and Texas Christian cemented bowl bids in their final games Saturday, while the Air Force Academy, according to Cotton Bowl officials, wants to wait until its game with Colorado this week before making a decision.

Syracuse whipped past West Virginia 15-12. Texas Christian won the Southwest Conference title with a 21-10 decision over defending champion Rice.

Champions in three other major conferences were settled. To the surprise of no one, Oklahoma trampled Nebraska 40-7 to win the Big Eight title for the 11th year in a row. It also marked the 71st straight conference game without defeat for the Sooners.

Dartmouth won the Ivy League crown with a 21-12 victory over Princeton. Wyoming finished on top in the Skyline Conference by licking Brigham Young 22-14 and then accepted an invitation to play in the Sun Bowl.

Auburn, Army and the Air Force are the only undefeated but tied major teams. All still have one game to go. Auburn, on probation by the NCAA and ineligible to play in bowl games, goes against Alabama Saturday. Army plays Navy in the big service game in Philadelphia, and Air Force tackles Colorado.

Auburn stopped Wake Forest 21-7, and Air Force dumped New Mexico 45-7 while Army was idle Saturday.

LSU Coach Would Like To Test Army

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — Louisiana State's Paul Dietzel, after a football season when dreams came true, had one more request today: "I'd like to play Army in the Sugar Bowl."

Sugar Bowl sponsors also would love a match between the Tigers, No. 1 in the nation with 10 victories, and third-ranked Army, which has only a tie to mar its record and Navy left to play. Army, however, has said it would not accept a bowl bid.

Four years ago, the 34-year-old LSU coach left a job as assistant to Army coach Earl (Red) Blaik to rebuild LSU's football fortunes.

Last Saturday's 62-0 slaughter of Tulane completed the job. It ended LSU's first perfect season in 50 years and all but clinched the national championship.

The Tigers also wrapped up the Southeastern Conference title and a Sugar Bowl bid.

"Army's team is pretty much like ours, fast and explosive," Dietzel said. "It would be a fine game. Also I have high regard for West Point and great esteem for coach Blaik."

Marian Anderson Working Quietly as U.S. Aide to U.N.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—When Marian Anderson was chosen as an American delegate to the U.N. a friend told her: "We're expecting great things of you."

After two months of the General Assembly session, her friends may be disappointed that the Negro contralto hasn't turned the U. N. into a sounding board for her ideals of international goodwill.

She prefers to work more quietly. Opening out her palm to an interviewer, she explained: "We try to get in the hand—not the fist."

"One speaks out; one sits; one is listened to; one listens; one presents two or three papers," she said, describing her U. N. tasks as impersonally as possible to acknowledge the debt to State Department speech writers and other aides.

Fighting the cold war and negotiating with the Russians she leaves to "others who know more about than ourself."

Miss Anderson spends about six hours a day in the Assembly's 81-nation trusteeship committee, a watchdog over more than 100 million Africans and Asians in nations that are technically wards of the U. N.

Her job is explaining the U. S. policy of encouraging democracy and independence for the U. N. trust territories when they've emerged far enough from their tribal past to handle their problems.

"I had felt some shyness, some anxiety about coming into this committee," she told fellow delegates in her frist speech. "But ever since the first day one has felt at home here."

That brief introduction, spoken only and with almost musical precision, produced a startling halt to the regular background noise of paper shuffling, whispered chatter and the footfalls of meandering delegates. "You could have heard a pin drop," said committee Chairman Frederick Boland of Ireland.

Miss Anderson is the committee's only Negro delegate from any of the Western nations which administer trust territories. This fact is not lost on her dark-skinned colleagues from Africa and Asia.

A delegate from a newly independent nation said privately that Miss Anderson's appointment was a good sign because he felt it showed U. S. policy was growing more liberal toward nations like his own.

A Negro delegate wondered why Miss Anderson did not speak for the United States when the committee was debating South West Africa — a bitterly fought trusteeship issue that really hinges on South Africa's policies of racial segregation in the territory.

Miss Anderson explained that presenting the compromise U. S. view on South West Africa was too difficult a diplomatic assignment for her.

What has she accomplished in two months?

"One wishes to do something," she says. "One should take as active a part as possible. Each little drop of goodwill adds to the river of international understanding."

Dad's Hunch Leads to Tot, Near Drowning

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Much has been made of a mother's intuition, but it was his father's intuition that got credit today for saving 2 - year - old Paul Trusty from drowning.

Fred Trusty, 30, said he was building steps on a hill behind his house when a "strange feeling" suddenly came over him.

"I don't know why," he said, "but I dropped my tools and looked toward the pond."

There were ripples on the water about eight feet from shore, Trusty continued, and "at first I thought it was a muskrat.

"Then I looked again and saw what looked like my son Paul's cap floating on the water."

The father dashed 50 yards, dived into the five-foot-deep water and seconds later came up with his unconscious son.

"His face was blue and he had stopped breathing," Trusty said. "I thought surely he was dead."

But Painesville firemen, using a respirator, revived the youngster.

Trusty said Paul had wandered away from his brothers, Fred Jr., 6, and John, 4, while they were playing in the yard.
